Regulations under the Census and Statistics Act, 1910.

JELlicoe, Governor-General.

IN exercise of the powers vested in me by the Census and Statistics Act, 1910, I, John Rushworth, Viscount Jellicoe, Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, do hereby make the following regulations prescribing additional matters in regard to which the Statistician shall collect statistics.

REGULATIONS.

1. In addition to the matters specified in paragraphs (a) to (j) of section 21 of the Census and Statistics Act, 1910, and in previous regulations made thereunder, the Statistician shall, subject to that section, collect statistics in regard to stocks of wheat and oats in the hands of farmers, and in regard to areas sown in wheat and oats, and in the case of wheat the area sown in each variety thereof.

2. Every person who has on property occupied or farmed by him any stock of wheat or oats, or any area sown or intended to be sown in either wheat or oats, shall on request, within such time or times as he may be required by the Statistician so to do, furnish particulars regarding such stocks or areas, and in the case of areas sown or intended to be sown in wheat he shall also furnish particulars of the variety or varieties thereof.
