Regulations under the Census and Statistics Act, 1910.

JELlicoe, Governor-General.

IN pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities conferred on me by the Census and Statistics Act, 1910, I, John Rushworth, Viscount Jellicoe, Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, do hereby make the following regulations prescribing additional matters in regard to which the Statistician shall collect statistics.

REGULATIONS.

1. IN addition to the matters specified in paragraphs (a) to (j) of section 21 of the Census and Statistics Act, 1910, the Statistician shall, subject to that section, collect statistics of the tonnage of cargo inwards and outwards at each port in the Dominion.

2. The controlling authority of each port in the Dominion shall upon request, and within such time or times as it may be required by the Statistician so to do, furnish monthly to the Statistician the particulars in the form set out in the Schedule hereto as are applicable to the port concerned in accordance with the instructions that accompany such forms or that may be issued by the Statistician.

3. The controlling authority shall sign the forms and transmit them by post or otherwise to the Statistician.

4. In these regulations “controlling authority” means the Harbour Board or other body or person controlling the port, and for the purpose of supplying the information required by these regulations includes the Chairman, Secretary, Treasurer, or other person exercising control of the shipping
