

production of a receipt from the postal authority of the posting of a registered postal packet shall be conclusive evidence of the receipt of a notice or communication by the person to whom it is addressed until the contrary is proved. In cases in which delivery by registered post is not practicable, heavy books and documents may be sent by ordinary post and unregistered, or by public carrier, and on proof of such posting or delivery to such carrier the books or documents shall be deemed to have been received by the person to whom they were addressed, unless and until the contrary is proved.

(b.) All communications to the parties shall be delivered at or sent to the address and to the person named by them as provided by Rule 3 (b).

(c.) If service or delivery as above provided should prove impracticable, the Tribunal will, upon application, give such directions as it may think fit, or may dispense with services.

43. In cases where any person is not residing in Europe, the additional time taken for any postal communications to reach or to arrive from the country in which such person is residing shall not be taken as included in the time prescribed by these rules; and further time may be granted on the application of any party where, owing to difficulties of communication or other good cause, such extension appears desirable.

"Party" shall include any person who has intervened in or has been allowed to take part in the case.

44. The proper expenses of witnesses will be allowed, and may be advanced by the Tribunal if called in pursuance of its order.

45. The Tribunal will permit amendments of written proceedings, extensions of time, and grant other dispensations from these rules in all such cases as may be necessary in the interests of justice and equity, and the Tribunal reserves power from time to time to alter, abrogate, or add to these rules as experience may require.

46. These rules are supplemental to the rules of procedure relating to the Mixed Arbitral Tribunal laid down in Sections III to VII of Part X of the Treaty, and must be read in conjunction with such rules of procedure.

BOREL, President.
R. E. L. VAUGHAN WILLIAMS.
ZACHARIAS.
