

9. It shall be the duty of the Resident Agent to compel all persons using diving-machines to dive in the deeper parts of the fishing reserve for which they are licensed, in order that the shallower parts thereof may be reserved for naked diving.

10. Any person who disobeys the directions of the Resident Agent under regulation 9 commits a breach of these regulations.

11. All licenses to use a diving-machine shall be in the form No. 2 in the Schedule hereto.

12. Every application for a license to use a diving-machine shall be made in writing to the Resident Agent, who may refuse any application made by a person who is not a British subject by birth.

13. Not more than six licenses to use diving-machines shall be granted in any season.

14. No person or firm shall apply for or be granted more than one license to use a diving-machine.

PART IV.—FEES AND PENALTIES.

15. (1.) The following fees shall be payable to the Resident Agent on the issue of licenses under these regulations, and shall form part of the public revenues of the Cook Islands:—

- (a.) Diving-machine license, per annum, £20.
- (b.) Diving and fishing license for a Native other than a Native of the island in which the fishing reserve is situated, per annum, £1.
- (c.) Diving and fishing license for a Native of the island in which the fishing reserve is situated, no fee.

(2.) The same fee shall be charged for any license for any portion of a year as for a whole year.

16. Every person who commits a breach of these regulations is liable to a penalty not exceeding £20 or, in default of payment thereof, to imprisonment with or without hard labour for any term not exceeding three months.

17. Any of the powers conferred by these regulations upon an Island Council may be exercised by the Resident Commissioner.
