

Notice of Change of the Purpose of Portion of a Reserve in the Borough of Geraldine, Canterbury Land District.

JELlicoe, Governor-General.

WHEREAS by section six of the Public Reserves and Domains Act, 1908 (hereinafter referred to as "the said Act"), the Governor-General is empowered, in the case of any public reserve vested in His Majesty or the Governor-General for any of the purposes comprised in Class II of the Second Schedule to the said Act, to change the purpose for which such reserve was set apart to any other purpose:

And whereas the land described in the Schedule hereto is portion of a reserve which was duly set apart as a drillshed-site and a parade-ground, and being a purpose within Class II in the Second Schedule to the said Act, and it is expedient to change, as hereinafter provided, the purpose of portion of such reserve so set apart:

Now, therefore, I, John Rushworth, Viscount Jellicoe, Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, do hereby, in pursuance of the powers conferred on me by section six of the said Act as aforesaid, declare that the portion of the reserve described in the Schedule hereto is hereby changed from a drillshed-site and a parade-ground to a site for a fire-brigade station. And I do hereby further declare that this notice is issued subject to the provisions of section seven of the said Act, and shall take effect according to the provisions of that section.

SCHEDULE.

ALL that area in the Canterbury Land District, containing by admeasurement 13.5 perches, more or less, and being part of Reserve 2675, situated in the Borough of Geraldine. Bounded towards the north by other part of the said Reserve 2675, 20 links; towards the east by the terrace of the Waihi River; towards the south by other part of the said Reserve 2675, 84 links; and towards the west by Talbot Street, 210 links.

As witness the hand of His Excellency the Governor-General, this 23rd day of February, 1921.

G. JAS. ANDERSON,
For Minister of Lands.

Changing the Purpose of a Reserve in the Borough of Geraldine, Canterbury Land District.

JELlicoe, Governor-General.

WHEREAS the land described in the Schedule hereto has been duly set apart for a site for a fire-brigade station, being a reserve within Class I of the Second Schedule of the Public Reserves and Domains Act, 1908, and such land is not vested in trust in any society, body corporate, or trustee:

And whereas it is expedient that such land should be appropriated for recreation purposes, being a reserve within Class III of the aforesaid Act:

Now, therefore, I, John Rushworth, Viscount Jellicoe, Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, in exercise of the powers and authorities conferred upon me by the eleventh section of the Public Reserves and Domains Act, 1908, do by this notification declare that the said land shall, from and after the third day of March, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one, be appropriated for recreation purposes under Class III of the Public Reserves and Domains Act, 1908; and I do hereby direct that this notification shall be published in the New Zealand Gazette.

SCHEDULE.

As witness the hand of His Excellency the Governor-General, this 23rd day of February, 1921.

G. JAS. ANDERSON,
For Minister of Lands.

Education Endowments in Village of Drury, North Auckland Land District, set apart as a Site for a Public School.

JELlicoe, Governor-General.

WHEREAS by section five of the Education Reserves Amendment Act, 1911, it is enacted that the Governor-General may, on the recommendation of the Land Board of the district in which are situated any reserves or endowments vested in the Crown by or in pursuance of section two of the Education Reserves Amendment Act, 1910, set apart as sites for public schools, secondary schools, or technical schools any part of such reserves or endowments:

And whereas the Land Board of the North Auckland Land District has duly passed a resolution recommending that the primary and secondary education endowments described in the First and Second Schedules hereto respectively should be set apart as a site for a public school, and it is expedient to give effect to such recommendation:

Now, therefore, I, John Rushworth, Viscount Jellicoe, Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the powers conferred by the Acts aforesaid, do hereby set apart the primary and secondary education endowments described in the said Schedules as a site for a public school.
