Warrant authorizing the Masterton County Council to construct Bridges over the Taueru River and Korokoko Stream on the Masterton-Waimata Road, and apportioning the Cost.

JELlicoe, Governor-General.

WHEREAS by section one hundred and nineteen of the Public Works Act, 1908 (hereinafter termed "the said Act"), it is, inter alia, enacted that in any case where the local authority of any district desires to construct a bridge or to establish a ferry or ford in any position that will in its opinion be of advantage and benefit to the whole or any considerable portion of the inhabitants of an adjacent district as well as to the inhabitants of its own district, and where it is, in the opinion of such local authority, reasonable that the local authority of such adjacent district should contribute to the cost of constructing or establishing the said bridge, ferry, or ford, the provisions of the said section shall have effect:

And whereas the Masterton County Council has given notice and taken the steps required by the said Act, and has made application to the Governor-General to authorize the construction of the bridges mentioned in the Schedule hereto, and hereinafter referred to as "the said work," and to apportion the cost of constructing and establishing the said work between the said Council and the Castlepoint County Council:

And whereas it has been agreed by and between the said Masterton and Castlepoint County Councils that the cost of constructing the said work shall be borne by the said Councils in the hereinafter-mentioned proportions:

And whereas no objection has been made by the other local authority which it is proposed should contribute to the cost of the said work:

And whereas I am of opinion that the said work should be done, and that it is expedient to make provision under the said Act for the purpose and in the manner hereinafter set forth:

Now, therefore, I, John Rushworth, Viscount Jellicoe, Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, in pur-
