

Regulations for the Employment and Payment of Itinerant Teachers.

JELLICOE, Governor-General.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House at Wellington, this 18th day of January, 1921.

Present :

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL.

IN pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities vested in him by the Education Act, 1914, and the amendments of that Act, and all other powers and authorities enabling him in this behalf, His Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Dominion, doth hereby make the regulations set forth hereafter for the employment and payment of itinerant teachers; and doth prescribe that this Order shall come into force on the date of the publication thereof in the New Zealand Gazette.

REGULATIONS.

1. IN cases where the establishment of full-time or of part-time schools is impracticable, itinerant teachers may, with the approval of the Minister, be appointed by an Education Board to give house-to-house instruction to pupils of school age in isolated districts; but no such teacher shall be appointed until suitable accommodation in the locality has been guaranteed for him.

2. Itinerant teachers shall give instruction for not less than twenty hours on not less than five days in each week.

3. Every itinerant teacher shall, when required, furnish the Senior Inspector with such evidence of the progress of his pupils as may be required.

4. An itinerant teacher shall receive a salary of £200 per annum, together with a travelling-allowance of £50 per annum, and such addition to salary payable in accordance with clause 2 of the regulations for the salaries of public-school teachers as for a teacher graded in Group I under the regulations for the grading of teachers. In the case of a married teacher house allowance at the rate of £30 per annum shall also be paid.

F. D. THOMSON,

Clerk of the Executive Council.

Declaring Land in the Wellington Land District to be subject to the Land for Settlements Act, 1908.

JELLICOE, Governor-General.

IN pursuance and exercise of the powers conferred by section seventy-nine of the Land for Settlements Act, 1908, I, John Rushworth, Viscount Jellicoe, Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, do hereby declare that the areas of Crown land described in the Schedule hereto shall be subject to the provisions of the Land for Settlements Act, 1908, and shall hereafter form part of the Carrington Settlement.

SCHEDULE.

ALL those areas in the Wellington Land District, containing by admeasurement 278 acres, 58 acres 1 rood 23 perches, and 188 acres 1 rood, being Section 12, Block I, Section 33, Block II, and Section 10, Block V, Tiffin Survey District, respectively. As the same is more particularly shown on a plan deposited in the office of the Chief Surveyor at Wellington numbered 313/1, and thereon bordered red.

As witness the hand of His Excellency the Governor-General, this 13th day of January, 1921.

D. H. GUTHRIE, Minister of Lands.

Regulations for New Zealand Military Forces amended.

JELLICOE, Governor-General.

IN pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities conferred upon me by the Defence Act, 1909, and its amendments, I, John Rushworth, Viscount Jellicoe, Governor-

General of the Dominion of New Zealand, do hereby amend, in the manner and to the extent set forth in the Schedule hereto, the Regulations for the Military Forces of New Zealand made on the twenty-second day of December, one thousand nine hundred and thirteen, and published in the New Zealand Gazette of the twenty-seventh day of January, one thousand nine hundred and fourteen; and I do hereby declare that the amendment hereby made shall take effect as from the date of publication thereof in the Gazette.

SCHEDULE.

REGULATIONS FOR NEW ZEALAND MILITARY FORCES, 1913.

Section VIII.—Bands.

PARAGRAPH 402 is hereby revoked, and the following substituted:—

“402. Bands may be formed as follows:—

Mounted Rifles: One for each regiment.

Artillery: One in each district.

Infantry: One for each battalion.

Senior Cadets: One at the headquarters of each Group.

“The strength of each band will be thirty-five, exclusive of the Bandmaster, consisting of twenty-five members of military age and ten supernumeraries of any age, providing that the latter are efficient musicians.

“No extra allowance or pay will be made from Government funds for bands, or in respect of men acting as bandsmen.”

As witness the hand of His Excellency the Governor-General, this 15th day of January, 1921, in the presence of

R. H. RHODES, Minister of Defence.
