

no payment shall, unless already payable under the regulation hereby revoked, be made for any part of such period which is more than three months prior to such first mentioned day. Any officer who performs such higher duties intermittently may, subject to the provisions of the preceding subclauses and to the foregoing proviso, include in his first period of twelve consecutive months any time during which he has performed such higher duties from and including the 1st day of April, 1920.

"(8.) In cases where an officer acts for a shorter period than those mentioned in the preceding subclauses of this regulation, and where the circumstances are shown to be of a special nature, the Commissioner may authorize payment of such amount as he considers proper."

As witness my hand this 17th day of January, 1921.

W. R. MORRIS, Public Service Commissioner.

In pursuance of the provisions of the Public Service Act, 1912, the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Dominion, approves the foregoing regulations.

JELLICOE, Governor-General.

Approved in Council this 18th day of January, 1921.

F. D. THOMSON,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

The Land and Income Tax (Annual) Act, 1920.—Income-tax payable.

Land and Income Tax Office,
Wellington, 20th January, 1921.

BY Order in Council, made and issued by His Excellency the Administrator of the Government in Council on the 24th day of September, 1920, under the authority of the above Act, it was determined that the respective duties by way of income-tax and special war-tax, leviable under sections 3 and 4 respectively of the said Act, should be paid in one sum on Monday, the 7th day of February, 1921, at the office of the Commissioner of Taxes, Government Buildings, Wellington; and, in accordance with such Order in Council, I hereby give notice that the said duties will be payable accordingly. Additional tax will accrue if the tax is not paid on or before 28th February, 1921. The liability to pay is not suspended by any objection. The tax should be paid on or before the prescribed date, otherwise the additional percentage accrues; any overpayment will be adjusted by refund.

The demands will be posted from the office of the Commissioner of Taxes on or about 31st January, 1921.

NOTE.—IMPORTANT.—A delay of some days will take place in the issue of the demands for the following: Individuals whose surnames commence with the letters I, J, K, N, O, P.

In these cases a new due date—viz., 21st February, 1921—will be fixed as provided by section 127 of the Land and Income Tax Act, 1916. Additional tax will accrue twenty-one days thereafter.

D. G. CLARK, Commissioner of Taxes.

Mining Privilege to be struck off the Register.

In the matter of the Mining Act, 1908, and its amendments; and in the matter of license for special alluvial claim numbered 693, and dated 21st April, 1904.

NOTICE is hereby given that, in accordance with the provisions of section 30 of the Mining Amendment Act, 1914, the mining privilege held under the license above mentioned will, unless cause to the contrary is shown, be struck off the Register of Mining Privileges at the expiration of three months from the date hereof.

Dated at Hokitika this 14th day of January, 1921.

JOHN N. NALDER, Mining Registrar.

Incorporated Societies Act, 1908.—Declaration by the Registrar dissolving a Society.

I, ROBERT EDWARD HAYES, Registrar of Incorporated Societies, do hereby declare that, as it has been made to appear to me that the Ashburton Municipal Brass Band (Incorporated) is no longer carrying on its operations and has no assets, the aforesaid society is hereby dissolved, in pursuance of section 28 of the Incorporated Societies Act, 1908.

Dated at Wellington this 11th day of January, 1921.

R. E. HAYES,
Registrar of Incorporated Societies.
