

"Member" means a member of an Electric-power Board duly elected or appointed in accordance with the provisions of the Electric-power Boards Act, 1918, but does not include the Chairman of an Electric-power Board.

2. The remuneration which the Board may pay out of its funds to any member for attendance at meetings of the Board or of any committee of the Board shall not exceed £1 1s. for each such meeting.

3. The maximum amount which may be paid to any member on any one day shall not exceed £1 1s., notwithstanding that such member may have attended one or more meetings of the Board or of any committee of the Board on such day.

4. (a.) The remuneration which the Board may pay to any member of the Board for transacting any business of the Board pursuant to a resolution of the Board shall not exceed £1 1s. per day for each day during which such member is wholly engaged in transacting such business.

(b.) No claim of any member of the Board for such remuneration shall be recognized by the Board unless such claim is accompanied by the certificate of such member stating the days on which he was wholly engaged in transacting such business.

(c.) Such certificate shall be in the following form:—

I, [Full name, occupation, and address], hereby certify that I was wholly engaged in transacting the business of the [Name of Board] Electric-power Board, in pursuance of the Board's resolution dated the _____ day of _____, 19____, on the following days [Day, date, month, and year.]

[Signature.]

5. No payment of remuneration under these regulations to any member of an Electric-power Board shall be made unless such payment is first passed at a meeting of the Board.
