Rules under Crimes Act, 1908, regulating Procedure on Appeals from Sentences.

WE, the undersigned Judges of the Supreme Court of New Zealand (of whom the Acting Chief Justice is one), in pursuance of the powers conferred upon us by section 354 of the Crimes Act, 1908, do hereby make the following rules regulating the practice and procedure in connection with appeals under section 2 of the Crimes Amendment Act, 1920:—

1. (a.) Every application for leave to appeal against a sentence shall be signed by the appellant, and shall be in the form set forth in the Schedule hereunder.

(b.) The Court of Appeal in special circumstances may accept such application if signed on behalf of the appellant by his solicitor.

(c.) Every such application shall be delivered to or transmitted by post to the Registrar of the Court of Appeal.

2. Notice of every such application shall be given by the Registrar of the Court of Appeal to the Solicitor-General, who shall be entitled to appear and represent the Crown on the hearing of such application and on the hearing of the appeal (if leave to appeal is granted); but the Solicitor-General, instead of appearing himself, may authorize a private prosecutor to appear and represent the Crown on any such hearing.

3. Where the Court of Appeal has given leave to appeal it shall not be necessary for the appellant to give any notice of appeal, but his application for leave to appeal shall be deemed in such case to be a notice of appeal.

4. The appellant, if in custody, shall not be entitled to be present at the hearing of the application for leave to appeal or on the hearing of the appeal, unless the Court of Appeal shall grant permission to him to be present at such hearing.

5. The Court of Appeal may order any witnesses to attend and be examined before the Court on the hearing of an application for leave to appeal or on the hearing of an appeal, but the appellant shall not be entitled to call any witnesses on such hearing without having first obtained the leave of the Court of Appeal to do so.

6. The decision of the Court shall be pronounced by the presiding Judge, or such other member of the Court as the Court directs, and no separate judgment shall be pronounced by any other member of the Court.

7. Where the Court of Appeal has heard and dealt with any application or appeal the Registrar shall give notice to the appellant of the decision of the Court of Appeal in relation thereto.
