"Officers are not entitled to draw travelling-allowance for any time during which they perform relieving duty, except as follows: When in performing relieving duty an officer is not required to stay more than three nights in the place where such duty is performed, he may be paid travelling-allowance instead of relieving-allowance. But travelling-allowance may be paid for the day occupied in travelling to or from headquarters, provided that the time occupied exceeds six hours on each occasion.

"In any special case the Commissioner may authorize payment of an allowance at a higher rate."

An officer of the Seventh Class of the Clerical Division who is in receipt of a salary of not more than £150 per annum shall be deemed to be performing the duties of a position of a higher class or grade than that in which he is classified if he performs the duties ordinarily performed by an officer of the same class who is in receipt of a salary of not less than £235 per annum, and may be granted, on the approval of the Commissioner, and subject to the provisions of this regulation, payment in addition to salary at a rate of not more than £25 per annum: Provided that no such payment shall be authorized unless the Commissioner is satisfied that the duties so performed have been actually taken over by the officer claiming from an officer in receipt of a salary of not less than £235 per annum, and are such as are ordinarily allotted only to officers of the Seventh Class in receipt of salaries of not less than £235 per annum, and that such duties have been performed in a proper and efficient manner by the officer claiming payment of an allowance in respect thereof."
