Proclaiming Road-lines laid out through Puketarata No. 4g 2d 2b 2b 1b and No. 4g 2d 2b 2b 2 Blocks to be Public Roads.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS the parcels of land described in the Schedule hereto were, by orders of the Native Land Court made on the fourth day of March, one thousand nine hundred and nineteen, and the second day of August, one thousand nine hundred and fifteen, duly laid off as road-lines, in pursuance of sections forty-eight, forty-nine, and fifty of the Native Land Amendment Act, 1913:

And whereas the said Court is of the opinion that in the public interest the said road-lines should be proclaimed as public roads, and a notification to that effect has been forwarded to the Minister of Lands, in terms of section fifty-one of the said Act:

And whereas one month's notice in writing of the intention to proclaim the said road-lines as public roads has been given by the Surveyor-General to the local authority of the district concerned, in terms of section fifteen of the Native Land Amendment Act, 1914:

And whereas it is now expedient that the said road-lines should be proclaimed as public roads:

Now, therefore, I, John Rushworth, Viscount Jellicoe, Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the powers conferred by sections forty-eight, forty-nine, and fifty of the Native Land Amendment

Act, 1913, and in so far as each of these sections is applicable, do hereby proclaim as public roads the road-lines described in the Schedule hereto.
