Regulations as to Appeals from Closing-orders under the Health Act, 1920.

JELlicoe, Governor-General.
ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government Buildings at Wellington, this 19th day of April, 1922.

Present :

THE RIGHT HONOURABLE W. F. MASSEY, P.C., PRESIDING
IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS it is provided by section forty-one of the Health Act, 1920 (hereinafter referred to as "the said Act"), that the procedure for the institution, hearing, and determination of appeals from closing-orders issued under the said Act shall be in accordance with regulations to be made under the said Act, and, subject to such regulations, or so far as they do not extend, shall be in accordance with the ordinary procedure of the Magistrate's Court: And whereas it is expedient to make regulations accordingly for the purposes of such appeals:

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of that Dominion, and in pursuance and exercise of the powers conferred on him in that behalf by the said Act, do hereby make the regulations hereinafter set forth.

REGULATIONS.

1. In these regulations the term "appeal" means an appeal from a closing-order issued under section 40 or under section 45 of the said Act.

2. The parties to an appeal shall be the owner or occupier of the premises affected as appellant, and the local authority (in the case of a closing-order issued under section 40 of the said Act) or the Medical Officer of Health (in the case of a closing-order issued under section 45 of the said Act) by which or by whom a closing-order has been issued as respondent.

3. Every appeal shall be instituted in the Magistrate's Court nearest to the public office of the local authority in whose district the premises in respect of which the closing-order has been issued are situated, or in such other Magistrate's Court as may be agreed on by the parties.

4. Every appeal shall be instituted by the appellant by filing in the appropriate Magistrate's Court a notice in the form in the Schedule hereto.

5. (1.) A copy of the notice of appeal shall be delivered by the appellant to the respondent, either personally or by means of registered post.

(2.) Notice of the appeal shall also be given by the appellant to such other persons (if any) as the Court may order.

6. On the filing of the notice of appeal the Court shall set the same down for hearing, and, save with the consent of the parties, shall give to them not less than fourteen days' notice either personally or by registered post of the time and place of the hearing.

7. The parties to the appeal, and such other persons as the Court may decide to hear, shall be entitled to be represented at the hearing by counsel.

8. If either party fails to appear at the hearing, the Court shall, in its discretion, adjourn the hearing or determine the appeal in the same manner as if both parties were present.

9. The determination of the Court shall be certified in writing by the Magistrate to the parties to the appeal, and to such other persons as the Court may direct.

Revoking the Vesting in the Ashburton County Council of Portion of Gravel Reserve 2525, Block I, Rangitatu Survey District.

JELlicoe, Governor-General.
ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government Buildings at Wellington, this 19th day of April, 1922.

Present :

THE RIGHT HONOURABLE W. F. MASSEY, P.C., PRESIDING
IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS the land described in the Schedule hereto forms a portion of a reserve duly vested in the Chairman, Councillors, and Inhabitants of the Ashburton County, in trust, for gravel purposes, by an Order in Council dated the seventh day of April, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four, and published in New Zealand Gazette No. 28, of the twelfth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four, in pursuance of section four of the Public Reserves Act, 1881, but a certificate of title has not issued in respect of the said reserve:

And whereas it is expedient that the said Order in Council should be revoked in so far as it relates to the land described in the Schedule hereto, and the Ashburton County Council has duly consented to such revocation:

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Dominion, and in pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities conferred upon him by subsection two of section three of the Public Reserves and Domains Amendment Act, 1914,
