

Shooting Season for Imported Game and Native Game, License Fee, &c., East Coast Acclimatization District.

IN exercise of the powers vested in me by the Animals Protection and Game Act, 1921-22, I, William Downie Stewart, Minister of Internal Affairs of the Dominion of New Zealand, do hereby notify that the following imported game and native game—viz., cock pheasants, Californian quail, Australian quail, grey duck, black teal, and black swan—may be taken or killed within the East Coast Acclimatization District, comprising the counties of Cook, Waikohu, and Waipapu, from the first day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-two, to the thirty-first day of July, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-two (both days inclusive).

And I do further notify that licenses to take or kill such imported game and native game within the said district will be issued to any person on payment of the sum of one pound (£1) each; and the Chief Postmaster at Gisborne is hereby authorized to sign and issue the said licenses.

And I do hereby restrict the number of such native game that may be taken or killed by any one person in any one day to not more than twenty-five head in all.

Nothing in any license to take or kill imported game and native game shall authorize the holder thereof to take or kill imported game and native game on lands actually and exclusively used by any registered acclimatization society for acclimatization purposes, or on any sanctuary or public domain.

As witness my hand at Wellington, this 3rd day of May, 1922.

R. HEATON RHODES,
For Minister of Internal Affairs.

[NOTE.—The above warrant is published in substitution for the one published on page 1012 of New Zealand Gazette No. 26, of 6th April, 1922.]
