

9. (1.) No certificate of incorporation shall be issued by the Registrar of Companies unless it shall appear to the Registrar, from the memorandum of association of the proposed company, that the objects for which the proposed company is to be established have relation principally to Samoa, and that the business of the proposed company or a material part of such business is to be carried on in Samoa.

(2.) Any person aggrieved by a refusal of the Registrar of Companies in Samoa to issue a certificate of incorporation may apply by motion to the High Court to review such refusal, and the High Court may, after taking such evidence (if any) as the Court thinks fit, order the issue of the certificate, all the requirements of the law having been first fulfilled, or order that no certificate be issued, and may make such further order as to costs of the motion as the Court thinks fit. Any such order of the Court shall be final.

10. Save as herein provided, the Companies Act, 1908, shall not be applicable to any incorporated company or other body corporate referred to in clause three hundred and seventy-six of the Samoa Act, 1921: Provided, however, that any such incorporated company or body corporate may be wound up under the provisions of Part VI of the said Act, and accordingly the said provisions shall as far as practicable apply to any such incorporated company or body corporate.

11. Any auditor of a company appointed by the Chief Judge of the High Court under section one hundred and thirty-six of the Companies Act, 1908, shall have in respect of the company, its accounts, and all persons dealing with its money, the same powers as the Audit Office has when duly appointed under section one hundred and thirty-three of that Act.

Clerk of the Executive Council.

Regulations under Provisions of the Naval Defence Act, 1913, amended.

JELlicoe, Governor-General.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government Buildings at Wellington, this 1st day of May, 1922.

Present :

THE RIGHT HONOURABLE W. F. MASSEY, P.C., PRESIDING IN COUNCIL.

IN pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities conferred on me by section twenty-five of the Naval Defence Act, 1913 (hereinafter called "the said Act"), and of all other powers and authorities enabling me in that behalf, I, John Rushworth, Viscount Jellicoe, Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Dominion, do hereby amend and supplement the regulations for the government and payment of the New Zealand Division of the Royal Navy made under the said Act by Order in Council of the twentieth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one, as shown in the Schedule hereto.

SCHEDULE.

1. In regulation No. 14, in regard to the payment of pension contributions, for "Royal Fleet Reserve, Class B, £2 per annum," substitute "Royal Fleet Reserve, Class B, £4 per annum."

2. Add an additional regulation No. 37A as follows:—

37A. Pensions, &c., payable to Officers and Men lent from Royal Navy.—The rates of pensions and gratuities payable to officers and men lent from the Royal Navy for service in New Zealand Naval Forces, in so far as liability for the payment thereof does not rest with the Admiralty consequent on the payment to them by the New Zealand Government of pension contributions in respect of such service, and pensions and allowances payable to the widows and children of such
