Proclaiming the Application of Section 12 of the Mental Defectives Amendment Act, 1921-22, to the State of Victoria.

[L.S.] JELlicOE, Governor-General.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by subsection two of section ten of the Mental Defectives Act, 1921-22, it is provided that the Governor-General, on being satisfied that adequate provision has been made by the laws of the United Kingdom or of any British possession (other than New Zealand) for the recognition in the United Kingdom or any such British possession of orders and declarations made by the Supreme Court of New Zealand in the exercise of its jurisdiction in lunacy, may, by Proclamation approved in Executive Council, declare that section twelve of the said Act shall, subject to any exceptions and modifications specified in the Proclamation, apply to the United Kingdom or any such possession, and thereupon while such Proclamation is in force the said section shall apply accordingly:

And whereas the Governor-General is satisfied that adequate provision has been made by the laws of the State of Victoria in the Commonwealth of Australia for the recognition in the said State of orders and declarations made by the Supreme Court of New Zealand in the exercise of its jurisdiction in lunacy:

Now, therefore, in pursuance and exercise of the power and authority so conferred upon me by the said subsection two of section ten of the said Act, I, John Rushworth, Viscount Jellicoe, Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, do hereby proclaim and declare that section twelve of the Mental Defectives Amendment Act, 1921-22, shall apply to the said State of Victoria.
