

either of them, or by contact therewith, and which may be occasioned by any default or neglect on his part.

9. In case the licensee shall—

- (1.) Commit or suffer a breach of the conditions hereinbefore set forth, or any of them;
- (2.) Cease to use or occupy the said wharves for a period of thirty days;
- (3.) Fail to pay the sums specified in clause 3 of these conditions; or
- (4.) Become bankrupt, or be in any manner brought under the operation of any law in force for the time being relating to bankruptcy—

then and in any of the said cases this Order in Council, and every right, power, or privilege, may be revoked and determined by the Governor-General in Council, without any notice to the licensee or other proceeding whatsoever; and publication in the New Zealand Gazette of an Order in Council containing such revocation shall be sufficient notice to the licensee, and to all persons concerned or interested, that this Order in Council, and the rights and privileges thereby conferred, have been revoked and determined; and upon such revocation the Minister may cause the said wharves to be removed, and may recover the costs incurred by any such removal from the licensee.

Licensing Robert Holland to occupy a Portion of the Land between High- and Low-water Marks in Whakarapa River, Hokianga Harbour, and to reclaim such Land.

JELlicoe, Governor-General.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House at Wellington, this 24th day of January, 1922.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS it is enacted by section thirty-nine of the Harbours Amendment Act, 1910 (hereinafter called "the said Act"), that in the case of lands between high- and low-water marks which belong to the Crown, and on which at high-water spring tides the depth of water is not sufficient for purposes of navigation, the Governor-General in Council may grant occupation licenses for periods not exceeding twenty-one years, at such rent and on such conditions as he thinks fit, and any such lease may contain a provision authorizing the lessee to reclaim the land the subject of the lease without complying with the requirements of section forty-one of the said Act:

And whereas it is desirable to license Robert Holland (hereinafter called "the licensee") to occupy a part of the land between high- and low-water marks, belonging to the Crown, in the Whakarapa River, Hokianga Harbour, on which at high-water spring tides the depth of water is not sufficient for the purposes of navigation:

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the hereinbefore-recited power and authority, and acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Dominion, doth hereby license the licensee to occupy the piece of land between high- and low-water marks of spring tides in the Whakarapa River, Hokianga Harbour, containing sixty-three acres, more or less, as shown edged red on plan marked M.D. 5318, and deposited in the office of the Marine Department at Wellington, and doth also authorize the licensee to reclaim the land subject to the following conditions.

CONDITIONS.

1. The licensee shall pay to the Marine Department a rental, in advance, each year of 1s. 6d. per acre per annum for the first ten years, and 2s. 6d. per acre per annum for the last eleven years, of the period of twenty-one years during which this license is in force, the first of such annual payments to be made on the licensee being supplied with a copy of this Order in Council.
2. The licensee shall keep any stop-banks which he may construct for the purpose of reclaiming the land included in this license in good order and condition, and shall provide and maintain all necessary outlets for storm-water.
3. The licensee shall keep the land included in this license free from noxious weeds.
4. The licensee shall not assign, charge, or part with any right, power, or privilege granted by this license without the previous written consent of the Minister of Marine.
5. The rights, powers, and privileges conferred by this Order in Council shall continue in force for twenty-one years from the date hereof, unless in the meantime such rights, powers, or privileges shall be altered, modified, or revoked by competent authority.
6. If the licensee commits or suffers a breach of any of the conditions of this license, the license may be revoked and determined by the Governor-General in Council; and publication of a notice of such revocation in the New Zealand Gazette shall be sufficient notice thereof to the licensee, and to all persons concerned or interested in this license, that it has been revoked and determined.

Clerk of the Executive Council.

Regulations for Protection of Life and Property on Vessels.

JELlicoe, Governor-General.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House at Wellington, this 30th day of January, 1922.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by section thirty-three of the War Legislation and Statute Law Amendment Act, 1918, it is enacted that the Governor-General in Council may from time to time make regulations to be called "General Harbour Regulations," which shall be in force in all the ports of New Zealand for, amongst other things, regulating matters relating to the protection of life and property in or on vessels:

And whereas by Order in Council dated the twenty-eighth day of September, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one, and published in the New Zealand Gazette No. 88, of the twenty-ninth day of the same month, regulations were made relating to the protection of life and property in or on vessels:

And whereas it is desirable to extend the date on and after which the said regulations shall come into force:

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, in exercise of the hereinbefore-recited power and authority, and acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Dominion, doth hereby order and declare that the regulations relating to the protection of life and property on vessels, and made on the twenty-eighth day of September, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one, shall come into force on and after the first day of March, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-two, in lieu of the first day of January, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-two.

F. D. THOMSON,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

Regulations under the Health Act, 1920, as to Rubbish and Refuse Containers.—(H. 55.)

JELlicoe, Governor-General.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House at Wellington, this 24th day of January, 1922.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL.

IN pursuance and exercise of the powers conferred on him by subsection two of section one hundred and thirty-two of the Health Act, 1920 (hereinafter referred to as "the said Act"), as governing paragraph (m) of subsection one of section sixty-seven of the said Act, and of every other power and authority enabling him in this behalf, His Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Dominion, doth hereby make the following regulations for the purposes of the said Act, to come into force on the day of gazetting this Order in Council.

REGULATIONS.

- (1.) No person being the owner or occupier of any building, land, or premises shall permit or suffer any accumulation or collection of ashes, sweepings, dust, rubbish, bones, waste food, or other rubbish or refuse to remain or be in or upon such building, land, or premises, except in a sufficient or suitable metal receptacle or receptacles, kept as clean as practicable, and maintained in good order and condition. Such suitable metal receptacle shall be watertight, and so constructed as to permit of every part of its interior being seen and adequately cleaned, and shall be provided with a close-fitting lid or covering which shall protect the interior from rain or ingress or egress of flies or any vermin, save when the receptacle is being actually used for the placing of matter therein.
- (2.) Every person who commits a breach of this regulation shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding £5.
- (3.) This regulation shall only apply within boroughs and town districts in which the local authority has made, or hereafter makes, provision for the collection and disposal of rubbish and refuse or other waste matter.
