

in performing relieving duty an officer is not required to stay more than three nights in the place where such duty is performed, he may be paid travelling - allowance instead of relieving - allowance. But travelling - allowance may be paid for the day occupied in travelling to or from headquarters, provided that the time occupied exceeds six hours on each occasion.

In any special case the Commissioner may authorize payment of an allowance at a higher rate.

An allowance in accordance with this regulation shall be granted only in cases where an officer is required to perform purely relieving duty.

A relieving - allowance shall not be paid to an officer for any period in excess of one month without the previous approval of the Commissioner thereto.

Regulation 117 is hereby amended by deleting the words " Officers receiving £430 a year and over, 2s. 6d. ; under £430 a year, 2s. 0d.," and substituting therefor the words " Officers receiving £420 a year and over, 2s. 6d. ; under £420 a year, 2s. 0d."

Regulation 201 is hereby amended by striking out the figures £330," and substituting therefor the figures " £320."

Regulation 209 (3) is hereby revoked, and the following substituted in lieu thereof :—

209. (3.) An officer of the Seventh Class of the Clerical Division who is in receipt of a salary of not more than £145 per annum shall be deemed to be performing the duties of a position of a higher class or grade than that in which he is classified if he performs the duties ordinarily performed by an officer of the same class who is in receipt of a salary of not less than £225 per annum, and may be granted, on the approval of the Commissioner, and subject to the provisions of this regulation, payment in addition to salary at a rate of not more than £25 per annum : Provided that no such payment shall be authorized unless the Commissioner is satisfied that the duties so performed have been actually taken over by the officer claiming from an officer in receipt of a salary of not less than £225 per annum, and are such as are ordinarily allotted only to officers of the Seventh Class in receipt of salaries of not less than £225 per annum, and that such duties have been performed in a proper and efficient manner by the officer claiming payment of an allowance in respect thereof.

As witness my hand this 12th day of August, 1922.

W. R. MORRIS,
Public Service Commissioner.

In pursuance of the provisions of the Public Service Act, 1912, the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Dominion, approves the foregoing regulations.

JELlicoe, Governor-General.

Approved in Council this 14th day of August, 1922.

F. D. THOMSON,
