Extending Close Season for Seals.

JELlicoe, Governor-General.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government Buildings at Wellington, this 9th day of January, 1923.

Present :

THE RIGHT HONOURABLE W. F. MASSEY, P.C., PRESIDING IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS it is enacted by section five of the Fisheries Act, 1908 (hereinafter termed "the said Act"), that the Governor-General may from time to time, by Order in Council gazetted, make regulations, which shall have force and effect either throughout New Zealand or only in such waters or places as are specified in the regulations, for, among other things, prescribing a close season not exceeding three years for seals, and, before the expiration of such term, further extending the same :

And whereas by Order in Council dated the fifth day of August, one thousand nine hundred and nineteen, and published in the New Zealand Gazette No. 99, of the fourteenth day of the same month, a period of three years from the twenty-seventh day of November, one thousand nine hundred and nineteen, was prescribed as a close season for seals : And whereas it is desirable to further extend the said period :

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the power and authority conferred upon him by the hereinbefore-recited section of the said Act, and acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Dominion, doth hereby make the regulation set forth in the Schedule hereto.

SCHEDULE.

THE close season of three years for seals, prescribed by the hereinbefore-recited Order in Council, is hereby further extended for a period of three years from the 27th day of November, 1922.

F. D. THOMSON,
Clerk of the Executive Council.
