Protection of Natural Enemy of the Rabbit.—Notice No. Ag. 2290.

Department of Agriculture,
Wellington, 24th August, 1923.

WITH respect to the Order in Council dated 20th August, 1923, declaring stoats and weasels to be natural enemies of the rabbit throughout the Dominion, it is hereby notified, for public information, that—

(1.) In districts which are free from rabbits consideration will be given to the granting of an exemption from the general protection upon receipt of a petition in that behalf made by any local authority or acclimatization society in accordance with the provisions of section 25 of the Rabbit Nuisance Act, 1908; and

(2.) Inspectors of Stock have been authorized to issue permits for the destruction of stoats and weasels on—

- (a.) Island sanctuaries;
- (b.) Acclimatization societies' game-rearing farms; and
- (c.) Poultry-farms where it is established that damage is being done on such farms by these animals.

W. NOSWORTHY, Minister of Agriculture.
