IMPOSITION OF DEPRECIATED CURRENCY DUTY.

Customs Department, Wellington, , 19 .

It is hereby notified, for public information, that the Minister of Customs has been requested to determine whether or not depreciated currency duty should be imposed on the following class(es) or kind(s) of goods, viz. :—

which are [or are not] at present subject to depreciated currency duty.

Before deciding the matter, the Minister hereby invites any person who considers that the importation of such goods without such duty being charged thereon would [or does] prejudicially or injuriously affect his industry or business, or who would be [or is] aggrieved if such duty were [or is] not charged on such goods, to make a complaint in the prescribed form.

The Minister also invites any person who considers that the imposition of depreciated currency duty on such goods does [or would] prejudicially or injuriously affect his industry or business or who is [or would be] aggrieved by the imposition of such duty to state in the prescribed form any reasons he may desire to offer why such duty should not be imposed.

Such complaint or statement will be regarded as strictly confidential. It must reach this office not later than one month from the date of the publication of this notification in the New Zealand Gazette.

Any complaint or statement already received in connection with the class(es) or kind(s) of goods referred to above will receive full consideration before the matter is decided.

....., Comptroller of Customs.
