Ross Dependency (Regulations respecting).

WHEREAS by His Majesty's Order in Council under the British Settlements Act (Imperial), 1887, dated the thirtieth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three, I, John Rushworth, Viscount Jellicoe, Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, was appointed Governor of the Ross Dependency, and all the powers and authorities which by such Order were given and granted to the Governor for the time being of such dependency were vested in me, and I was further authorized and empowered to make all such rules and regulations as may lawfully be made by His Majesty's authority for the peace, order, and good government of the said dependency:

Now, therefore, I, acting as Governor of the said dependency, in pursuance of the powers vested in me by the said Order in Council or otherwise, do make the following regulations:—

I. The laws and usages in force in the Dominion of New Zealand at this date shall be from this date in force in the Ross Dependency in all respects as if the same had been enacted or in force in such dependency by regulation or otherwise, except in so far as the same are inapplicable to the conditions of such dependency.

II. All laws hereafter enacted by the Legislature of the said Dominion shall, as far as applicable, have the same force and effect as if they had been duly enacted for such dependency, unless disallowed or modified by myself or the Governor for the time being of such dependency.

III. All persons appointed by myself or the Governor for the time being of such dependency shall have such power and authority as shall be granted them in due course of law, and may be empowered to do such things as are necessary or desirable to ensure that the said laws are duly observed and complied with in every respect, and to do all things necessary or expedient for the peace, order, and good government of such dependency, and to safeguard and preserve His Majesty's rights and sovereignty over and in respect of such dependency.

As witness my hand this 14th day of November, 1923.

JELlicoe, Governor.

Ross Dependency (Officer of the Government of), appointed).

IN pursuance and exercise of the power and authority conferred upon me by His Majesty's Order in Council under the British Settlements Act (Imperial), 1887, dated the thirtieth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three, and all other powers me thereunto authorizing, I, John Rushworth, Viscount Jellicoe, Governor of the Ross Dependency, do hereby appoint as an officer of the Government of the said dependency, with authority to do all things and take all steps necessary or expedient to safeguard, preserve, and cause to be observed within such dependency His Majesty's rights and sovereignty and the laws and regulations in force in the same; and the better to enable him to carry out such duties do hereby confer on him in respect of such dependency all the powers and authorities which may be exercised in New Zealand by a Stipendiary Magistrate, and also all the powers and authorities which may be so exercised by a Justice of the Peace, but so, nevertheless, that such powers shall in no way derogate from or limit his general executive and administrative authority in so preserving His Majesty's rights and sovereignty and the laws and regulations in force in such dependency in the same manner and with the same powers and authorities as the various executive and administrative authorities have in the Dominion of New Zealand for carrying out and enforcing the laws of such Dominion, to hold such office and exercise the duties thereof during pleasure.

As witness my hand this 14th day of November, 1923.

JELlicoe, Governor.
