

Education Act, 1914.—Regulations for Incidental Expenses of Secondary Schools.

JELlicoe, Governor-General.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House at Wellington, this 19th day of November, 1923.

Present :

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL.

IN pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities vested in him by the Education Act, 1914, and the amendments of that Act, His Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Dominion, doth hereby make the regulations set forth in the Schedule hereto for incidental expenses of secondary schools; and, with the like advice and consent, doth prescribe that this Order shall come into force on the first day of January, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-four.

SCHEDULE.

REGULATIONS FOR INCIDENTAL EXPENSES OF SECONDARY SCHOOLS.

1. THE purposes for which the incidental allowances paid to secondary schools in accordance with section 100 of the Education Act, 1914, as amended by the Education Amendment Act, 1920, shall be such only as are comprised under the following heads:—

- (a.) Office staff salaries, including clerical assistance for principals.
- (b.) Other office expenses, including payments for furniture, equipment, stationery, postage, telephones, rent, insurance, cleaning, fuel, and incidental bank charges.
- (c.) Refund of travelling-expenses to Board members in accordance with section 93 of the Education Act, 1914.
- (d.) Legal expenses not connected with administration of endowments.
- (e.) Material, apparatus, and stationery for school classes.
- (f.) Printing and advertising in connection with the school.
- (g.) Cleaning and sanitary service, heating, lighting, and water-supply in connection with school buildings.
- (h.) Care and improvement of school grounds.
- (i.) School libraries.

Provided that expenditure in connection with boardinghouses shall not, without the approval of the Minister, be included as incidental expenses.

2. Further, if provision has been made for the cost of all the items specified in clause 1 hereof, the incidental allowances may be expended on other purposes for which the Board's funds are available, and for the purpose of subsidizing contributions from parents and others for the purchase of material and apparatus for the encouragement of organized school games.

3. No part of the incidental allowances or of other grants from the Consolidated Fund shall be used for school prizes or for any expenditure connected with the lower department.
