

Notice as to Change of Purpose of Portion of a Reserve in the Borough of Ashburton, Canterbury Land District.

CHARLES FERGUSSON, Governor-General.

WHEREAS by notice issued pursuant to section six of the Public Reserves and Domains Act, 1908, dated the twenty-first day of August, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three, and published in the Gazette of the twenty-third day of August, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three, the purpose for which the portion of the reserve described in the Schedule hereto was set apart was changed from a reserve for railway-conservation purposes to a reserve for the development of water-power (Lake Coleridge scheme):

And whereas the said notice was laid before Parliament pursuant to the provisions of section seven of the said Act, and no resolution has been passed by either House of Parliament that such House does not assent to such change of purpose:

And whereas it is provided by the said section seven that if no such resolution is passed by either House, then, from and after the termination of the then session of Parliament, such change of purpose, in accordance with the terms of the notice, shall be valid and effectual for all purposes whatsoever:

Now, therefore, I, Sir Charles Fergusson, Baronet, Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, do hereby notify that no such resolution as aforesaid has been passed by either House of Parliament, and that the change of purpose as set forth in the notice aforesaid has taken effect accordingly as from the sixth day of November, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-four (being the date of the termination of the session during which the notice aforesaid was laid before Parliament).

SCHEDULE.
