Regulations with respect to Export for Sale of Deer, Deer-skins, Venison, Stags' Heads or Antlers.

CHARLES FERGUSSON, Governor-General.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government Buildings at Wellington, this 6th day of April, 1925.

Present :

THE HONOURABLE SIR FRANCIS BELL PRESIDING IN COUNCIL.

IN pursuance and exercise of the powers conferred on him by the Animals Protection and Game Act, 1921-22 (hereinafter referred to as "the said Act"), His Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Dominion, doth hereby make the following regulations for the purposes of the said Act:—

REGULATIONS.

1. In these regulations the expression "the said regulations" means the regulations made under the said Act on the 1st day of February, 1924, and gazetted on the 7th day of the same month.

2. Clause 7 of the said regulations is hereby amended by inserting the following proviso to subclause (4) thereof:—
"Provided that this subclause shall not apply to deer which have been or may hereafter be by Warrant of the Governor-General declared to cease to be imported game."

3. The said clause 7 is hereby further amended by revoking subclause (5) thereof, and inserting in lieu thereof the following subclause:—

"(5.) (a.) No person shall export or attempt to export for sale beyond New Zealand any deer, or venison, or stag's head, or the antlers or skins thereof, without the consent in writing of the Minister.

"(b.) Such consent may relate to deer, or venison, or stags' heads, or the antlers or skins thereof, or any two or more of the same, and may relate to one occasion of export or to export over such period of time as the Minister may think fit.

"(c.) Such consent shall be subject to such conditions and restrictions as the Minister may impose.

"(d.) Any such consent may be revoked at any time during its currency.

"(e.) Every person exporting or attempting to export any deer, or venison, or stags' head, or the antlers or skins thereof, under the provisions of such consent as aforesaid shall comply with all conditions and restrictions thereby imposed."

F. D. THOMSON,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

Extending Time for registering Charges against Land for Unpaid Land-tax.

CHARLES FERGUSSON, Governor-General.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government Buildings at Wellington, this 6th day of April, 1925.

Present :

THE HONOURABLE SIR FRANCIS BELL PRESIDING IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by section eleven of the Land and Income Tax Amendment Act, 1924 (hereinafter called "the said Act"), declared to be deemed part of the Land and Income Tax Act, 1923 (hereinafter called "the principal Act"), the Commissioner may within the time thereby limited register in manner therein appearing any charge created by the said section:

And whereas by subsection four of the said section it is in effect enacted that the Commissioner shall have no right to recover from any successor in title, tenant, or mortgagee mentioned in section one hundred and forty-seven of the principal Act any land-tax in respect of the payment of which default has been made before the commencement of the said Act, unless he has registered such charge within six months after the commencement of the said Act:

And whereas certain of such charges as aforesaid cannot be registered within the said period of six months:

And whereas by section one hundred and seventy-three of the principal Act the Governor-General by Order in Council may appoint a further time if anything thereby required to be done within a fixed time cannot be so done:

Now, therefore, in pursuance and exercise of the power and authority vested in him under the principal Act and of all other powers and authorities enabling him in that behalf, His Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, acting by and with the advice and consent of the
