

10. The person serving the notice shall within three days after such service endorse on the notice or a copy or duplicate thereof the day of the month and week of the service thereof, otherwise the judgment creditor shall not be at liberty to issue execution on the judgment. Every affidavit of service of such notice shall mention the day on which such endorsement was made. This rule shall apply to substituted as well as other service. In special circumstances the three days limited by this rule may be extended by order of a Judge.

11. After service of the notice of registration the judgment debtor may within the time limited by the order giving leave to register apply by summons to a Judge in Chambers to set aside the registration or to suspend execution on the judgment, and the Judge on such application if satisfied that the case comes within one of the cases in which under section 4 (2) of the said Act no judgment can be ordered to be registered, or that it is not just or convenient that the judgment should be enforced in New Zealand, or for other sufficient reason, may order that the registration be set aside or execution on the judgment suspended, either unconditionally or on such terms as he thinks fit, and either altogether or until such time as he directs. In special circumstances the Judge may allow the application to be made after the expiration of the time limited by the order.

12. No execution shall issue on a judgment registered under the said Act until after the expiration of the time limited by the order giving leave to register after service on the judgment debtor of notice of the registration thereof: Provided that the Judge who makes the order for registration or a Judge at Chambers may order at any time that execution shall be suspended for a longer time.

13. Any party desirous of issuing execution on a judgment registered under the said Act shall produce to the proper officer an affidavit of the service of the notice of registration.

14. A writ of execution on a judgment registered under the said Act shall be varied by describing thus the sum recovered: "which of has recovered against him in [Describing the Court in which the judgment was obtained] by virtue of a judgment bearing date the day of 19 , and which judgment has been duly registered in our Supreme Court of New Zealand pursuant to Part I of the Administration of Justice Act, 1922."

15. Any application under section 5 of the said Act for a certified copy of a judgment obtained in the Supreme Court shall be made ex parte to the Registrar at the Registry in which the judgment is recorded and shall be supported by an affidavit made by the judgment creditor or his solicitor giving the particulars of the judgment and showing that the judgment debtor is resident in some part of His Majesty's Dominions outside New Zealand to which Part I of the said Act extends, and stating to the best of his information and belief the title, trade, business, or occupation, and usual or last known place of business or abode of the judgment creditor and judgment debtor respectively.

16. The certified copy of the judgment shall be an office copy and shall be sealed with the seal of the Supreme Court, and shall be certified by the Registrar as follows: "I certify that the above copy judgment is a true copy of a judgment obtained in the Supreme Court of New Zealand, and this copy is issued in accordance with section 5 of the Administration of Justice Act, 1922.

(Signed).....

Registrar of the Supreme Court of New Zealand at....."

17. The table of fees fixed by the Order in Council of the 6th day of October, 1920, shall apply to all proceedings under these rules.

F. D. THOMSON,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

Revoking Order in Council licensing Messrs. Berridge and Jones to use and occupy a Part of the Foreshore and Land below Low-water Mark at Kohukohu, on the Hokianga River, as a Site for a Shop.

CHARLES FERGUSSON, Governor-General.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House at Wellington, this 18th day of May, 1925.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by Order in Council dated the thirteenth day of September, one thousand nine hundred and eleven, and published in the New Zealand Gazette No. 74, of the twenty-first day of the same month, Messrs. George Edwin Halliwell, Fred Halliwell, and Herbert Halliwell were licensed to use and occupy a part of the foreshore and land below low-water mark, at Kohukohu on the Hokianga River, as a site for a shop:

And whereas the said license was with the consent of the Minister of Marine transferred in turn to the Hokianga Meat Supply Company (Limited), then to Maxwell Beazley, and then to Alfred Berridge and Albert Jones (who with their executors, administrators, and assigns, are hereinafter referred to as "the licensees"):

And whereas the said licensees have applied to have the hereinbefore-recited license revoked, and it is desirable to revoke the same:

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the power and authority vested in him by the Harbours Act, 1923, and of all other powers and authorities enabling him in that behalf, and acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Dominion, doth hereby revoke the hereinbefore-recited Order in Council of the thirteenth day of September, one thousand nine hundred and eleven, as from the thirty-first day of March, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five.

F. D. THOMSON,
Clerk of the Executive Council.
