

by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Dominion, doth hereby make the following additional Customs Regulations.

REGULATIONS.

1. THESE regulations may be cited as the Additional Customs Regulations, 1925, and shall be deemed to be part of the Customs Regulations gazetted on the 2nd day of July, 1914, and shall come into force on the first day of October, 1925.

2. In these regulations—

“Australia” means the Commonwealth of Australia;

“Original invoice” with respect to any goods means the original invoice which was produced to the Customs upon the entry of these goods in Australia, and includes a copy of such original invoice or of so much thereof as relates to the goods, certified by a competent Customs authority in Australia to be a true copy in whole or in part of such original invoice.

3. The current domestic value of goods, not being the produce or manufacture of Australia, but imported from Australia into New Zealand, shall in the cases hereinafter specified be assessed at an amount exceeding by ten per centum the current domestic value of those goods in the country from which they were exported to Australia, at the time of their exportation to Australia.

4. Assessment of the current domestic value of any goods in accordance with the preceding regulation shall be made in all cases which comply to the satisfaction of the Collector of Customs with the following conditions, viz:—

- (a.) That the goods are imported into New Zealand in the condition in which they were imported into Australia;
- (b.) That the original invoice is produced to the proper Officer of Customs in New Zealand, together with the invoice for the goods as required by section 115 of the Customs Act, 1913;
- (c.) That the original invoice shows the current domestic value of the goods in the country from which they were exported to Australia at the time of such exportation;
- (d.) That the original invoice has been certified in accordance with the requirements of the Australian or New Zealand Customs Regulations, or otherwise to the satisfaction of the Collector of Customs;
- (e.) That the current domestic value of the goods if assessed under these regulations would be not less than their current domestic value assessed independently of these regulations if, at the time of their importation into New Zealand from Australia, they were imported into New Zealand directly from the country from which they were exported to Australia;
- (f.) That the deductions (if any) provided for in subsection (3) of section 114 of the Customs Act, 1913, shall be made only in respect of sums paid or payable on the goods in the country from which they were exported to Australia.

5. Notwithstanding the foregoing regulations, if the importer satisfies the Collector that the current domestic value of any goods as assessed under these regulations is greater than their current domestic value assessed independently of these regulations, then the Collector may assess the current domestic value of the goods independently of these regulations.

6. Nothing in these regulations shall be deemed to limit the application of the provisions of section 11 or section 13 of the Customs Amendment Act, 1921.
