

11. Passengers who desire to cancel sleeping-berths previously paid for may be permitted to do so, and provided no loss is occasioned to the Department by such cancellation will be granted a refund of the sleeping-berth fee less the prescribed deduction.

5. Holiday Excursion Tickets.

1. After public notification in each case, return holiday excursion tickets at fares as per schedule following, may be issued on the railways under the control of the Department on such holidays and special occasions, and available for return for such period, as may be determined by the Department.

2. The journey must be commenced before the expiry of the period during which such tickets are issuable in each case, and must be completed on or before the date on which the ticket expires, and may be broken at any station where the train is timed to stop, being not less than 25 miles from the original starting-station, provided the specified time for which the ticket is available is not exceeded.

3. Holiday excursion tickets available for use on the outward journey within seven days prior to the date upon which the general issue of such tickets is available for travel may be issued to jockeys and trainers travelling in charge of racehorses en route to race meetings and to exhibitors and attendants in charge of exhibits en route to shows.

4. Tickets at the holiday excursion rates will be issued only at the option of the Department. Fares will be charged at the following rates:—
