

the purchase of wheat of the harvest of the season 1925-26 in New Zealand if in accordance with the terms thereof any wheat of that description could be delivered in due fulfilment of the agreement. The provisions of these regulations as to offers, options, or right of purchase shall be construed in like manner.

7. In granting a permit under these regulations the Secretary of Industries and Commerce may impose such terms and conditions as to the purchase and as to the disposition or use of the wheat so purchased as he thinks advisable for the due regulation and maintenance of industries essential for the public welfare.

8. Any such permit may be granted or refused in the absolute discretion of the Secretary of Industries and Commerce, and shall be revocable at the will of the Secretary.

9. When any wheat has been purchased under any such permit, it shall not be lawful for the purchaser or any subsequent purchaser to deal with it otherwise than in accordance with the terms and conditions on which the permit was granted.

10. The Secretary of Industries and Commerce, or his duly authorized representative, may require any person to give to him any information in such person's possession, and to produce any books or documents in his possession or under his control, relating to the sale or purchase of any wheat, whether grown in New Zealand or not, and of whatever season's crop, and whether such person is a party to such sale or purchase or not. Any person withholding any such information, or failing to produce such books or documents, shall be guilty of an offence against these regulations, and shall be liable accordingly.

11. Any person who makes any false representations with intent thereby to obtain any permit under these regulations (either for himself or for any other person), or who in any manner deceives or attempts to deceive the Secretary of Industries and Commerce in the exercise of the powers conferred by these regulations, shall be guilty of an offence against these regulations, and shall be liable accordingly.
