ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government Buildings at Wellington, this 21st day of December, 1925.

Present :

THE HONOURABLE J. G. COATES PRESIDING IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by Order in Council dated the seventeenth day of September, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three, and published at page 2449 of the New Zealand Gazette of the same date, regulations were made and charges fixed under the authority of the Post and Telegraph Act, 1908, and its amendments (hereinafter termed "the said Act") for connections with telephone exchanges :

And whereas it is expedient to amend such regulations in the manner hereinafter set forth :

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the power and authority conferred upon him by the said Act, and of all other powers and authorities in that behalf enabling him, and acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Dominion, doth hereby revoke subsection one of regulation numbered forty-five under the heading "Telephone Connections with Street Stands and Wharves" in the Schedule to the above-recited Order in Council, and in lieu thereof doth hereby make the regulation set forth in the Schedule hereto, and doth declare that the regulation hereby made shall form part of and shall be read together with the regulations first herein mentioned, and shall come into force on and after the date of the publication of this Order in Council in the New Zealand Gazette.

SCHEDULE.

45. (1.) A telephone-exchange connection with a street stand over which a local authority has jurisdiction shall be made only on the application and at the charge of the local authority controlling the street. In such a case the telephone connection shall be entered in the telephone directory by stating the situation of the stand and the class of vehicle, &c., using it. Authority to sublet such telephone connection to the users of the stand shall be vested in the local authority concerned, upon the following terms :—

- (a.) The telephone shall be properly housed in a cabinet of a design approved by the Department.
- (b.) The door of the cabinet shall be kept locked except when the telephone is in use.
- (c.) No person other than a sublessee or an authorized officer of the local authority concerned shall be allowed to use the telephone.

In the event of any of the conditions enumerated in (a), (b), or (c) hereof not being observed, the Minister may, without notice, disconnect the telephone from the exchange, and no person shall have any claim for damages or otherwise whatsoever in consequence of such action being taken by the Minister.
