Present:

THE RIGHT HONOURABLE J. G. COATES, P.C., PRESIDING IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by section nine of the Judicature Amendment Act, 1913, it is enacted that each Division of the Court of Appeal shall sit and exercise its jurisdiction separately, save that in respect of any sitting of either Division the Governor-General in Council may, on the certificate of two Judges (of whom the Chief Justice shall be one) that any appeal or other proceeding is of special difficulty or importance, authorize all the Judges of the other Division to sit together with those of the former Division for the hearing and determination of that appeal or proceeding:

And whereas a case stated under the Crimes Act, 1908, between His Majesty the King and Thomas Clarence Carswell stands for hearing and determination before the First Division of the Court of Appeal at the sitting commencing on the fifteenth day of March, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-six:

And whereas the Honourable Charles Perrin Skerrett, Chief Justice of New Zealand, and the Honourable William Cunningham MacGregor, a Judge of the Supreme Court of New Zealand, have certified that the said case is one of special difficulty.

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, in pursuance of the authority vested in him in that behalf as aforesaid, and acting by and with the advice of the Executive Council of the said Dominion, doth hereby authorize the Judges of the Second Division of the Court of Appeal to sit with the Judges of the First Division of that Court for the hearing and determination at the aforesaid sitting of the said case between His Majesty the King and Thomas Clarence Carswell.

F. D. THOMSON,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

Authorizing the Judges of the Second Division of the Court of Appeal to sit with the Judges of the First Division.

CHARLES FERGUSSON, Governor-General.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government Buildings at Wellington, this 9th day of March, 1926.

Present:

THE RIGHT HONOURABLE J. G. COATES, P.C., PRESIDING IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by section nine of the Judicature Amendment Act, 1913, it is enacted that each Division of the Court of Appeal shall sit and exercise its jurisdiction separately, save that in respect of any sitting of either Division the Governor-General in Council may, on the certificate of two Judges (of whom the Chief Justice shall be one) that any appeal or other proceeding is of special difficulty or importance, authorize all the Judges of the other Division to sit together with those of the former Division for the hearing and determination of that appeal or proceeding:

And whereas a motion on appeal by the Bank of New Zealand against John William Baker stands for hearing and determination before the First Division of the Court of Appeal at the sitting commencing on the fifteenth day of March, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-six:

And whereas the Honourable Charles Perrin Skerrett, Chief Justice of New Zealand, and the Honourable William Cunningham MacGregor, a Judge of the Supreme Court of New Zealand, have certified that the said motion is one of special importance.

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, in pursuance of the authority vested
