

(f.) If a principal buyer's license be cancelled under any of the foregoing provisions of these regulations, all licenses issued to such principal buyer under this clause shall be deemed to be likewise cancelled, and shall forthwith be void and of no effect, and shall be produced for surrender under clause 15 hereof.

(g.) No license shall be issued under the provisions of this clause, except on production of the principal buyer's license concerned, and the person issuing any such license shall endorse on the said principal buyer's license a memorandum of the issue of such license under the provisions of this clause.

19. On application by the person to whom any license has been issued and on proof to the satisfaction of the Resident Commissioner or Resident Agent by statement in writing, statutory declaration, or other evidence, that any license or copy of a license has been lost or mutilated, or become illegible, and on payment of a fee of two shillings and sixpence, the Resident Commissioner or Resident Agent may at any time during the currency of the license issue to such person a copy thereof, certified as being a true copy, and such copy shall be available for all purposes in like manner as the original license.

PART III.—GROWING OF TOMATOES.

20. The regulations comprised in Part III hereof shall come into force on the 1st day of October, 1926.

21. For the purposes of the regulations comprised in Part III hereof "Inspector" includes a local Fruit Inspector.

22. All tomato-plants must be raised from the seed in boxes, and all plants found to have been raised in beds may be destroyed, or ordered to be destroyed, by an Inspector.

23. As soon as the tomato-crop has been harvested the plants and stakes shall be removed from the land upon which such crop was grown, and the land shall be ploughed in order to prevent disease. Unless this is done, the Inspector may forbid the use of the same land for the growing of tomatoes during the next succeeding season.

24. Unless plants removed from any land under the last preceding clause have been thoroughly destroyed to the satisfaction of the Inspector, the Inspector may forbid the use, for the growing of tomatoes during the next succeeding season, of the land to which such plants have been removed.

25. All tomato-plants must be trained to stakes, or other suitable support.

26. No person shall raise, grow, or harvest tomatoes, or cause or suffer tomatoes to be raised, grown, or harvested, otherwise than in conformity with the provisions contained in Part III hereof.

F. D. THOMSON,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

Licensing Colin Campbell Crump, of Wellington, to occupy a Part of the Foreshore and Land below Low-water Mark at Kawau Island, Hauraki Gulf, for the Purpose of taking Shingle and Sand.

CHARLES FERGUSSON, Governor-General

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government Buildings at Wellington, this 30th day of March, 1926.

Present:

THE RIGHT HONOURABLE J. G. COATES, P.C., PRESIDING IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS, there being no Harbour Board empowered to grant the license hereinafter mentioned, Colin Campbell Crump, of Wellington (who with his executors, administrators, and assigns is hereinafter called "the licensee"), has applied to the Governor-General in Council for a license under the Harbours Act, 1923, (hereinafter called "the said Act"), to use and occupy a part of the foreshore and land below low-water mark at Kawau Island, Hauraki Gulf, for the purpose of taking away the shingle and sand deposited thereon; and, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, has deposited a plan in the office of the Marine Department at Wellington (marked M.D. 6141) showing the area of foreshore and land below low-water mark intended to be occupied for such purpose:

And whereas it is desirable to grant the license applied for:

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the power and authority vested in him by the said Act, and of all other powers and authorities enabling him in that behalf, and acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Dominion, doth hereby approve of the purpose or object for which the said license is required by the licensee as aforesaid; and, in further pursuance and exercise of the said power and authority, and with the like advice and consent as aforesaid, doth hereby license and permit the licensee to use and occupy that part of the foreshore and land below low-water mark which is particularly shown and delineated within a red line on the plan so deposited as aforesaid, for the purpose of taking away the shingle and sand deposited thereon, such license to be held and enjoyed by the licensee upon and subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the Schedule hereto.

SCHEDULE.

- In these conditions the term—
