Special Order made by the Kowai County Council altering Riding Boundaries and adjusting Representation.

Department of Internal Affairs,
Wellington, 17th April, 1926.

THE following special order, made by the Kowai County Council, is published in accordance with the provisions of the Counties Act, 1920.

Pursuant to section 100 of that Act, as amended by section 3 of the Counties Amendment Act, 1921-22, I hereby fix the 22nd day of April, 1926, as the date from which the special order shall take effect.

RICHD. F. BOLLARD,
Minister of Internal Affairs.

KOWAI COUNTY.

Special Order.—County Ridings.

WHEREAS the Kowai County is at present divided into two ridings—the "North" and the "South"—as defined in Proclamation dated the 18th day of March, 1912, and published in Gazette, 1912, Volume 1, page 1070:

And whereas it is desirable that the area comprised in the Amberley Town District should be constituted a separate riding of the county:

Now, therefore, the Kowai County Council doth hereby (by way of special order) ordain and declare as follows:—

1. That the number of ridings in the county shall be and the same is hereby altered from two to three.
2. That the number of County Councillors shall be seven.
3. That the three ridings shall be named the "North," the "South," and the "Amberley" Ridings, and the boundaries thereof shall be as follows:—

- (a.) The North Riding shall be the area defined as the "North Riding" in the Proclamation hereinbefore referred to, save and except that part thereof as is within the Amberley Town District.
- (b.) The South Riding shall be the area defined as the "South Riding" in the said Proclamation.
- (c.) The Amberley Riding shall be the area within the Amberley Town District.

4. The representation of the several ridings on the Council shall be as follows:—

Three Councillors shall be elected for the North Riding.
Three Councillors shall be elected for the South Riding.
One Councillor shall be elected for the Amberley Riding.
5. This special order (save as referred to in the next succeeding paragraph) shall come into full force only at the general election of the Council to be held in the month of May next, except in so far and to such extent as may be necessary for preparing any rolls or otherwise providing for such election.

6. This special order so far as it makes any alteration in the boundaries of the North Riding (but subject to the general provision contained in the preceding clause) shall take effect on a date fixed in that behalf by the Minister of Internal Affairs and notified in the Gazette.

The resolution to make the above special order was passed by the Kowai County Council at a special meeting of the
