

appellant shall specify therein the name of the person whom he appoints to act as assessor on his behalf at the hearing of his appeal, and such assessor shall give in writing his consent to act. Such of the provisions of these regulations as the Board thinks fit may be printed on the said form, but shall not be deemed to be part thereof.

Magistrate to be appointed.

B. Within twenty-one days after receipt of such notice of appeal the Board shall inform the appellant of the name of the Magistrate before whom the appeal will be heard, and of the assessor appointed by the Board, and shall at the same time forward to such Magistrate a copy of the Board's decision and the notice of appeal therefrom, together with a notice of the name of the assessor appointed by the Board.

Place of appeal.

C. The Magistrate and assessors shall hear and determine such appeal at such convenient place and time as may be decided by the Magistrate, to be not more than forty-two days from the receipt by the Board of the notice of appeal.

Notice to be given.

The Magistrate shall cause at least five days' previous notice of such place and time to be given to the assessors, the Board, and the appellant.

Representation at appeal.

D. At the hearing of the appeal the appellant may himself appear or may be represented by some person on his behalf, and the Board may be represented by any member thereof appointed by the Board or by some other person appointed by the Board, but no solicitor or counsel shall appear or be heard.

Evidence.

E. The Board of Appeal may, in its discretion, receive any evidence that it thinks fit (whether on oath or otherwise), and may act on any statement, document, information, or matter which in the opinion of the Board of Appeal may assist it to deal with the matters before it, whether the same would be legally admissible in a Court of law or not.

Procedure.

F. In matters not expressly provided for in the said Act or by these regulations the procedure of the Board of Appeal shall be such as the Magistrate may determine.

Adjournment.

G. The Board of Appeal may, from time to time, adjourn the hearing or consideration or determination of the appeal as it thinks fit.

Result of appeal.

H. The determination made in respect of the appeal shall be in writing, signed by the Magistrate and the assessors, and a copy of such order shall be given to the appellant and to the Board; and the Board shall at once give effect to such order. No determination shall be invalid by reason of the omission or refusal of any assessor to sign the same.
