

"Machine" means any machine for the time being used in connection with road-works on the said main highway:

"Motor-vehicle" means any motor-vehicle as defined in the Motor-vehicles Act, 1924:

"Workman" means any person engaged on works on the said main highway.

2. No person shall drive any motor-vehicle on any part of the said main highway at a greater speed than twenty miles per hour.

3. No person shall when travelling in the vicinity of workmen or machines on the said main highway drive any motor-vehicle at a speed which is dangerous to the workman or machine, but in any case not exceeding a speed of ten miles per hour, the length within which such reduced speed shall apply shall be between notice boards or discs placed on or adjoining such main highway.

4. Any person authorized by the Chairman or Engineer, or any workman or officer or constable of police, may stop any rider or driver of any motor-vehicle who in his opinion exceeds the speed limits herein provided.

5. Any rider or driver of any vehicle who exceeds or is challenged with having exceeded the speed limits herein provided shall, on the request of any person so authorized or any workman or officer or constable of police, give information as to his name and address and any other particulars required as to his identification.

6. If such rider or driver shall refuse to give his name and address or other particulars, or shall give a false name and address or other particulars, he shall be guilty of a breach of these by-laws, and any other person then in such motor-vehicle who shall fail when required to give information which is in the power of such person to give, and which may lead to identification of the rider or driver as aforesaid shall be guilty of an offence against these by-laws.

PENALTY.

7. Every person who shall do or cause or procure to be done anything contrary to or otherwise than is provided by these by-laws or any section or part of a section thereof, or who shall omit to do anything therein required to be done by him shall be guilty of an offence.

8. Every person guilty of an offence against these by-laws shall be liable for each such offence, to such fine not exceeding £5 as the Court inflicting the same shall in its discretion think fit.

The foregoing by-laws were made by resolutions duly passed at meetings of the Main Highway Board held at Wellington on the 22nd day of April, 1926, and on the 20th day of May, 1926.

In witness whereof the common seal of the Main Highways Board is hereto affixed this 1st day of June, 1926, in the presence of—

C. J. MCKENZIE, Chairman.
P. S. WALDIE, Member.
