WELLINGTON, THURSDAY, JANUARY 21, 1926.

Altering Boundaries of Dannevirke and Woodville Counties, and including Area in Dannevirke Riding, Dannevirke County.

[L.S.] CHARLES FERGUSSON, Governor-General.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS it is provided by subsection two of section fourteen of the Counties Act, 1920, that the boundaries of any one or more counties may be altered in accordance with a resolution proposing the alteration passed by the Council of each of such counties in which the Counties Act is in force:

And whereas a resolution was passed by the Dannevirke County Council on the fifteenth day of September, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five:

And whereas a similar resolution was passed by the Woodville County Council on the twentieth day of October, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five, praying for the alteration of the boundaries of the Dannevirke and Woodville Counties in the manner described in the said resolutions and in the first Schedule hereto:

And whereas it is expedient to make such alteration in accordance with the said resolutions, and that the area to be added to the Dannevirke County should be included in the Dannevirke Riding of that county:

Now, therefore, in pursuance and exercise of the power and authority conferred on me by the said Act, I, General Sir Charles Fergusson, Baronet, Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, do hereby proclaim and declare that the area described in the First Schedule hereto, being now part of the Woodville County, shall be added to and form part of the Dannevirke County; that the boundaries of the Woodville and Dannevirke Counties as so altered shall be those set forth under the respective headings in the Second Schedule hereto; that the area added as aforesaid to the Dannevirke County shall be included in the Dannevirke Riding of the said county; and that the boundaries of that riding shall be those set forth in the Third Schedule hereto:

And I do also proclaim and declare that this Proclamation shall take effect on the first day of April, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-six.
