Validating Election of Trustees of Eltham Drainage District.

CHARLES FERGUSSON, Governor-General.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government Buildings at Wellington, this 12th day of January, 1926.

Present :

THE RIGHT HONOURABLE J. G. COATES, P.C., PRESIDING IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS pursuant to section ten of the Land Drainage Act, 1908 (hereinafter referred to as “the said Act”), and pursuant to an Order in Council made on the twenty-seventh day of April, one thousand nine hundred and one, and gazetted on the second day of May, one thousand nine hundred and one, an election of five Trustees of the Eltham Drainage District (hereinafter referred to as “the said district”) should have been held on the fifth day of November, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three, and such election was not held on that day, but public notice was given that an election (hereinafter referred to as “the said election”) would be held on the sixteenth day of November, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five :

And whereas five candidates were nominated for election as trustees of the said district, and the five candidates so nominated were declared to be duly elected as Trustees of the said district accordingly :

And whereas it is expedient to validate the holding of the said election after the day provided by the said Act :

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities conferred on him by the said Act as amended by the Land Drainage Amendment Act, 1922, and of all other powers and authorities enabling him in that behalf, and acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Dominion, doth hereby validate the said election of Trustees of the said district insofar as that election was not held on the day provided by the said Act; and doth hereby declare that the proceedings in connection with the holding of the said election shall not be called in question by reason only of the irregularity aforesaid.

F. D. THOMSON,
Clerk of the Executive Council.
