B. RECEIPTS AND PAYMENTS FOR THE YEAR ENDED 30TH JUNE, 192 .

NOTE.—To obviate the possibility of this statement being misconstrued as an Income and Expenditure Account Secretaries should note that what is required is a statement of cash transactions—i.e., money actually received and paid out during the year.

Receipts.	Paymente.
I. Ordinary revenue,— £ Contributions— From Government	Out of Revenue or Government Grant.
From local authorities From insurance companies	Main- tenance. Capital.
Theatre fees Alarm fees Retaining-fees Special services Interest on investments Sale of materials Other revenue items [Specify principal sources]	Administrative expenses— £ £ £ Honoraria, salaries, &c. (in- Limitalized for salaries, &c. Legal expenses, audit and valuation fees, stamps, telegrams, &c. Printing and stationery and advertising Insurances Legal expenses (not including damages awarded against Board) Other payments on adminis-
Total ordinary revenue £	tration [Specify] General maintenance charges— Wages and salaries (other than those included above
II. Receipts not revenue,— (a.) From loans (other than temporary	under administrative expenses) Uniforms loans) (b.) From other sources [Specify principal items]	Station stores Fire and lighting Benzine Benzine Repairs and renewals Maintenance of electrical installations Other maintenance charges [Specify principal items] Purchases of plant and appliances Payments under section 29 of the Fire Brigades Act, 1908 Interest on loans Interest on loans Interest on bank overdraft Amounts paid to sinking fund Repayments of debentures and other loan-money (excluding temporary loans) Other payments [Specify]
Total of receipts not revenue £	Totals \mathfrak{L} \mathfrak{L}
Total of receipts under headings I and II Temporary loans raised Deposits on contracts, &c Cash in hand or at bank at beginning of year (less unpresented cheques) Overdraft at bank at end of year (plus outstanding cheques)	Total payments as shown in above three columns Contractors' and other deposits returned Temporary loans repaid Total payments Overdraft at bank at beginning of year (plus outstanding cheques) Cash in hand or at bank at end of year (less unpresented cheques)*
Total (this total must agree with total £ on "Payments" side)	Total (this total must agree with total on "Receipts" side)

^{*} This should agree with the corresponding item under A.