Applying the Provisions of Section 97 of the Native Land Amendment Act, 1913, to a Mortgage other than a State Loan Department.

CHARLES FERGUSSON, Governor-General.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House at Wellington, this 9th day of August, 1926.

Present :

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS subsection two of section ninety-seven of the Native Land Amendment Act, 1913, enacts that the Governor-General in Council may at any time declare that the provisions of the said section ninety-seven shall apply to the case of a mortgage of a lease in favour of any mortgagee other than a State Loan Department :

And whereas it is expedient that the provisions of the said section should apply to the mortgage herein referred to :

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the said section and of all other powers and authorities me thereunto enabling, I, General

Sir Charles Fergusson, Baronet, Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Dominion, do hereby declare that the provisions of the said section ninety-seven shall extend and apply to the case of the mortgage described in the Schedule hereto.
