Declaring Bragg's Private Burial-ground under Section 2 of the Cemeteries Amendment Act, 1912.

CHARLES FERGUSSON, Governor-General.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS a petition has been presented, under section two of the Cemeteries Amendment Act, 1912, (hereinafter termed "the said Act"), praying that the area described in the Schedule hereto, being a parcel of land wherein the bodies of deceased persons have been buried prior to the commencement of the said Act, be declared to be a private burial-ground, to be called and known by the name of the "Bragg's Private Burial-ground":

And whereas it is deemed expedient to grant the prayer of the said petition:

Now, therefore, in exercise of the powers in that behalf vested in me by the said Act, I, General Sir Charles Fergusson, Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, do hereby declare the parcel of land described in the Schedule hereto to be a private burial-ground subject to the provisions of the said Act, to be called and known by the name of the "Bragg's Private Burial-ground":

And I do further notify and declare that the persons for whom the said parcel of land shall be deemed to be set apart in perpetuity as a private burial-ground are John Bragg of Half-moon Bay, in the County of Stewart Island, and the lineal descendants of the said John Bragg, and of his wife, the late Sarah Bragg, and the husbands or the wives of any of the said lineal descendants of John Bragg and of his wife, Sarah Bragg, or any persons related to or connected by marriage with the said John Bragg or the said Sarah Bragg, or any persons employed by John Bragg or any of the aforementioned relatives, provided such persons are employed on property at Half-moon Bay owned by the said John Bragg or his descendants.

SCHEDULE.

ALL that parcel of land, situate in the Southland Land District, containing by admeasurement 10.5 perches, more or
