

New Zealand Reparation Estates Amendment Order, 1926 (Number 3).

CHARLES FERGUSSON, Governor-General.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House at Wellington, this 13th day of September, 1926.

Present :

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL.

HIS Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of that Dominion, and in pursuance of the authority in that behalf conferred upon him by the Treaties of Peace Act, 1919, and the Samoa Act, 1921, and all other authorities and powers in this behalf him enabling, doth hereby revoke the New Zealand Reparation Estates Amendment Order, 1923, and doth hereby order as follows:—

1. INTERPRETATION.

(1.) This Order may be cited as the New Zealand Reparation Estates Amendment Order, 1926 (Number 3), and shall come into force on the first day of October, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-six.

(2.) This Order shall be read with and form part of the New Zealand Reparation Estates Order, 1920 (hereinafter referred to as "the principal Order").

(3.) In this Order, where not inconsistent with the context,—

"Property" means any right, title, estate, interest, claim, or demand in, to, or over any property, real or personal, now, or at any time heretofore, or at any time hereafter, subject to or affected by the provisions of the principal Order :

"Charge" includes any hypothek, hypothecary charge, or other security for money now, or at any time heretofore, or at any time hereafter, charged upon or directly or indirectly enforceable against any property as hereinbefore defined; and includes any charge that may be or have been extinguished by the operation of the principal Order :

"The Minister" means the Minister of External Affairs :

"Vest" includes revest :

"Warrant" means a Warrant issued under the provisions of this Order.

(4.) Any Order made by the Minister under the New Zealand Reparation Estates Amendment Order, 1923, hereby revoked, shall enure for all purposes as fully and effectually as if it had been a Warrant originating under the provisions of this Order.

2. EXERCISE OF POWERS.

(1.) Whenever in his absolute discretion the Minister considers that any property or charge has been vested in His Majesty in error under clause 3 of the principal Order, or whenever for any reason he deems it desirable or expedient so to do, the Minister may issue a Warrant under the powers conferred by this Order.

(2.) A Warrant shall be issued by the Minister by [writing under his hand and the Seal of Samoa.

(3.) Any Warrant may from time to time be revoked, altered, or amended by a subsequent Warrant.

(4.) Any Warrant shall have effect according to its tenor, and without further act or assurance shall operate as a vesting, or revival and vesting, or creation, as the case may be, of the property or charge intended to be affected thereby.
