

- (vi.) Assistant in charge of Model I, with salary of £325-£370.
 - (vii.) Assistant Mistress in charge of Model II, with salary of Grade 2, with an additional £30.
 - (viii.) Assistant Mistress in charge of Model III, with salary of Grade 2, with an additional £30.
 - (ix.) Assistant Mistress in charge of Model IV, with salary of Grade 2.
 - (x.) In the secondary department, if the number of pupils in yearly average attendance is not more than thirty an assistant with a salary of Grade 3; and, if the number of pupils in yearly average attendance is more than thirty, a male assistant teacher with a salary of Grade 4 and a female assistant teacher with a salary of Grade 2, with an additional £30.
- (3.) The associated normal school shall be staffed and the salaries paid in accordance with the regulations for public-school staffs and salaries, provided that an assistant teacher with a salary of Grade 2 shall be substituted for each probationary assistant, and provided further that the head teacher shall receive an addition to salary of £40 per annum, assistants of Grades 2 and 3 an addition of £30 per annum, and assistants of Grade 1 an addition of £20 per annum.
- (4.) Where circumstances render it advisable the staffing and salaries for a training college and for a practising school as prescribed in this clause may, with the approval of the Minister, be modified in such manner as he shall determine.
- (5.) A married assistant on the staff of a normal school shall be entitled to additional salary of £50 per annum under the same conditions as if he were an assistant in a public school other than a normal school.
- (6.) (a.) Any teacher, other than the head teacher, on the staff of a normal school shall receive by way of addition to the salary hereinbefore provided such grading addition as he would have been entitled to receive under the regulations relating to salaries of public-school teachers if he were a teacher on the staff of a public school other than a normal school.
- (b.) Any teacher, other than the head teacher, on the staff of a normal school not entitled to an addition to his salary as provided in paragraph (a) of this subclause shall receive by way of addition to the salary otherwise payable under these regulations such amount, not exceeding in any case £50 per annum, as may be approved by the Minister.
- (7.) A teacher other than the head teacher on the staff of a normal school shall be entitled to the same annual increment as public-school teachers of the same grade. Those not receiving grade salaries will receive annual increments of £15.
- (8.) The provisions of the regulations relating to public-school teachers respecting commencing salaries, salaries on transfer, leave of absence, and annual increments shall apply, mutatis mutandis, to staffs of training colleges and normal schools; and should any dispute or difficulty arise respecting the meaning or effect of these regulations the question shall be submitted to the Minister, whose decision thereon shall be final.
- (9.) The grades of salaries referred to in this clause are the grades of salaries prescribed for assistant teachers of public schools.
- (10.) (a.) No member of the staff of a training college shall be employed as assistant to the Professor of Education in a University college unless it is shown to the satisfaction of the Minister that the work for the latter college is done outside the ordinary training-college hours and that the duties in the training college are not interfered with; and unless the Minister approves of the conditions of employment in the University college and the remuneration therefor.
- (b.) All the members of the staff of the normal school shall be deemed to be also members of the staff of the training college, and shall take such part in the tuition, training, and supervision of the students as the Principal may direct and the Director approve.
- (c.) All the members of the staff of the associated normal school shall be required to assist in providing the students with such training and practice in the art of teaching as the Principal may direct.
8. (1.) The following grants shall be paid to the Board:—
- (a.) For the incidental expenses of the practising schools, the same grants as are prescribed under the Act for public schools with the same average attendance.
 - (b.) For the incidental expenses of the training college, the upkeep of the college library, and the provision of clerical assistance, such grants or allowances as the Minister may approve.
 - (c.) Where expert assistance, not provided by the regular staff of the training college, is found to be required for instruction of students in manual work, elocution, singing, and other special subjects, such additional grants, not exceeding £200 per annum, as the Minister may approve.
