A receipt for all fees received shall be given on the official form.

“(2) It shall be the duty of the Judge, subject to the power of remission under Rule one hundred and eighty, to see that all such fees are paid either at or after the proceedings in which they are charged; and, if necessary, to refrain from doing any act or making any order until such fees are paid or secured.

“(3) The Clerk of the Court shall, at the end of each sitting or within seven days thereafter, deliver to the Registrar an account of all fees charged in respect of matters before the Court, and shall attach in stamps to such account all fees received in respect of matters referred to in such account. Such account shall be signed by the Clerk and countersigned by the Judge or by one of them if more than one Judge is sitting. Where the Court sitting extends over more than twenty-eight days a progress account shall be delivered at the end of every twenty-eight days, and a final account at the end of the sitting or within seven days thereafter.

“(4) The Registrar shall transmit to the Under-Secretary immediately after the last days of March, June, September, and December in each year a return of all fees accrued and received during the preceding quarter, and of all fees received during that period in respect of any former period or year.
