(17) A permit-holder shall be entitled to erect, maintain, and occupy, on any part of the camping-area, a camp comprising one or more tents or other structures of a temporary nature and to remove the same at any time prior to the expiration or sooner determination of the permit, doing as little damage as possible to the ground thereby, and making good before the expiration or sooner determination of the permit any damage to the ground done thereby:

Provided that no permit-holder shall erect, maintain, or occupy at any one time more than one camp, nor erect, maintain, or occupy as a camp any part of the camping-area situate within one chain of any camp already for the time being erected and occupied in any part of the camping-area, except with the consent of the permit-holder, or holder of a permanent-camp license, in occupation of such last-mentioned camp.

(18) No permit-holder shall—

(a) Use any site or cause or suffer the same to be used for the purpose of any trade or business or for any illegal or improper purpose or otherwise howsoever than as a camping-site.

(b) Use any site or cause or suffer the same to be used in any manner that shall or may be or become a nuisance, damage, annoyance, or inconvenience to or in any way interfere with the quiet and comfort of the occupier of any other site, or the owners or occupiers of any adjoining or neighbouring land.

(c) Destroy or damage or cause or suffer to be destroyed or damaged any trees, growing timber, or bushes on any site or any adjoining or neighbouring land:

Provided that, notwithstanding the foregoing provisions, it shall be lawful for a permit-holder (subject to the provisions of clause 19 hereof) to cut down or lop trees, growing timber, or bushes, on any part of the camping-area, either for the purpose of making a suitable camp-site, or for reasonable use as firewood, or tent-poles, or otherwise in connection with his camp.

(d) Keep, or cause, or suffer to be kept, or to be upon or about any site any dog or other animal without the express written permission of a permit officer, which permission may at any time be revoked.

(19) Notwithstanding the proviso to paragraph (c) of the last preceding clause hereof, it shall not be lawful for a permit-holder or any other person to cut down, lop, or otherwise damage trees or growing timber on any part of the camping-area, the trees and growing timber on which have, by notice published in the Gazette, been declared by the Minister to be preserved, and any person who cuts down, lops, or otherwise damages any tree or growing timber so declared to be preserved is guilty of an offence against these regulations.

(20) Every permit-holder shall at all times during the continuance of his permit—

(b) Keep any site for the time being occupied by him and all erections thereon in a clean, orderly, and tenable condition.

(c) Use all reasonable precautions to prevent damage by fire either to the camping-area, or to adjoining or neighbouring land, or to anything growing or erected thereon respectively.

(d) After he or any member of his family, or any visitor, or servant, or any person occupying a camp with him as provided by clause (15) of this regulation, has opened or passed through any gate or opening in a fence upon the camping-area, securely close and fasten the same.

(21) Every permit-holder shall, prior to his leaving any site, destroy or bury all refuse and articles and matter of any kind not removed by him from the site, save that it shall be lawful to leave erected thereon any tent-framework, where, fireplace, or similar structure, provided always that no right to the ownership or possession of anything so left shall enure to the permit-holder against the Crown or against any person being at any time in lawful occupation of the said site.

(22) Every permit-holder shall, without affecting any liability he may have incurred for a breach of these regulations, be liable for any damage suffered by any person through such breach, and for any damage done to the camping-area, or to anything affixed thereon or growing thereon, by him or any member of his family, or any visitor or servant or any person occupying a camp with him as provided by clause (15) of this regulation.

(23) The production of a duplicate copy of a permit signed by a permit officer shall be prima facie evidence that such permit was duly issued to the person named therein and that such person thereupon became a permit-holder within the meaning of this regulation.

(24) Nothing contained in the foregoing clauses of this regulation shall be deemed to restrict the right of the Crown to let for camping-sites any part of the land referred to in paragraph (c) of subsection (4) of the special Act.

15. PERMANENT CAMPS.

(5) No person shall remove, damage, or deface any landmark made or erected under the last preceding clause hereof.

(6) Every applicant for a permanent-camp license shall, on making his application, submit to the permit officer a written description of the site for which he desires a license, with a reference to any landmarks set up as provided in clause (4) hereof, and a permit officer may require an applicant to submit a further or better description of such site.

(7) The issue of a permanent-camp license may be deferred until the Minister is satisfied that the site is described in a manner reasonably sufficient for the identification thereof.

(8) The fee for a permanent-camp license shall be at the rate of 10s. for every week or part of a week of the period for which the license is issued.

(9) Every permanent-camp license shall be deemed to operate as a license to the permit-holder and his tenants and assigns to use and occupy, to the exclusion of all other persons, for the term therein stated, but subject to the provisions implied herein by this regulation, the land described in such license.

(10) The holder of a permanent-camp license shall be entitled to erect, maintain, and occupy on the land described therein such buildings as he may require, and as are authorized under clause (12) hereof, and remove the same at any time prior to one month before the commencement of the next ensuing open season, doing as little damage as possible to the ground thereby, and making good immediately upon such removal any damage to the ground done thereby.

(11) The holder of a permanent-camp license who, after the expiration of the term therein stated, leaves any building on the land described therein, shall pay a fee, computed from such expiration, at the rate of 10s. for every week or part of a week during the open season, and 2s. 6d. for every week or part of a week during the close season until—
