Declaring that Portion of the Banks of the Waimana River in Waimana Survey District, Whakatane County, shall be protected.

[L.S.] CHARLES FERGUSSON, Governor-General.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS it is provided by section one hundred and eighty-three of the Public Works Act, 1908, that where it is found desirable for the safety or proper maintenance of any public work to protect the banks of, or to alter or divert either wholly or partially, any river, the Governor-General may, by Proclamation publicly notified, declare that the banks of such river shall be so protected or its course so altered or diverted, and thereupon the protection of the banks or the alteration or diversion of such river shall be a public work within the meaning of the said Act:

And whereas the Whakatane County Council proposes to execute certain works for the purpose of protecting the banks of the Waimana River for the safety and proper maintenance of public roads in the Whakatane County, and has applied for the issue of a Proclamation declaring that portion of the banks of the said river shall be protected:

Now, therefore, I, General Sir Charles Fergusson, Baronet, Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the powers conferred by section one hundred and eighty-three of the Public Works Act, 1908, and of every other power and authority in anywise enabling me in this behalf, do hereby proclaim and declare that the portion of the banks of the Waimana River (described in the Schedule hereto) shall be protected.
