

Amending Regulations under the Census and Statistics Act, 1926.

CHARLES FERGUSSON, Governor-General.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government Buildings at Wellington, this 28th day of November, 1927.

Present :

THE RIGHT HONOURABLE J. G. COATES, P.C., PRESIDING IN COUNCIL.

IN pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities vested in him by the Census and Statistics Act, 1926, His Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Dominion, doth hereby revoke the regulations made on the twenty-seventh day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-six, and published in the Gazette on the tenth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-six, and doth hereby make the following regulations in lieu therefor.

REGULATIONS.

1. In these regulations,—

“The general manager for New Zealand” shall include the manager, secretary, or clerk, or other responsible authority or person for the time being in charge in the Dominion of the business of an accident-insurance company, and in the event of there being no such general manager for the Dominion, shall include the person or persons in charge for the time being of any branch or branches in the Dominion of an accident-insurance company, and also shall include the agent, attorney, or representative of an accident-insurance company :

“Accident-insurance company” means any person, firm, company, or association (whether incorporated or otherwise) who or which issues or is liable under accident-insurance policies in New Zealand, and includes companies now established in or out of New Zealand, and includes also mutual associations as well as proprietary; but does not include any institution subject to the provisions of the Friendly Societies Act, 1909, and its amendments. Any broker, agent, or other person who, on behalf of any person, firm, company, or association (whether incorporated or otherwise) not carrying on business in New Zealand negotiates any contract for accident-insurance shall, for the purpose of these regulations, himself be deemed to be an accident-insurance company.

2. The general manager for New Zealand of every accident-insurance company shall, upon request, and within such times as are hereinafter set out, furnish to the Statistician particulars in the form of the return set out in the Schedule hereto in accordance with any instructions that may accompany such form or may from time to time be issued by the Statistician.

3. The general manager for New Zealand shall certify the particulars contained in such form of return as correct to the best of his knowledge and belief, and shall transmit such form of return by post or otherwise so as to reach the Statistician not later than the 30th day of June in each year.
