

and April in each year instead of on each first day of October and April:

And whereas the special order aforesaid states that the term of the loan shall be for a period of thirty years, commencing on the twentieth day of January, nineteen hundred and twenty-eight, and maturing on the twentieth day of January, nineteen hundred and fifty-eight:

And whereas it is desired that the term of the said loan shall be for a period of thirty years commencing on the first day of April, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-eight, and maturing on the first day of April, one thousand nine hundred and fifty-eight:

And whereas it appears that the ratepayers have not been misled by the irregularity, defect, or proposed alteration aforesaid, and it is expedient to validate the same:

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities conferred on him by section one hundred and twenty-two of the Local Bodies' Loans Act, 1926, and acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Dominion, doth hereby order and declare that the proceedings taken shall be valid to all intents and purposes as if the said half-yearly interest days had been correctly recited in the said special order as the first days of October and April and as if the term of the said loan had been recited in the said special order as commencing on the first day of April, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-eight, and that the validity of the proceedings in connection with the said loan shall not be called into question by reason only of the irregularity or defect aforesaid.

C. A. JEFFERY,
Acting Clerk of the Executive Council.

Appointing Members of the First and Second Divisions of the Court of Appeal.

CHARLES FERGUSSON, Governor-General.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government Buildings at Wellington, this 10th day of March, 1928.

Present:

THE RIGHT HONOURABLE SIR FRANCIS BELL, P.C., PRESIDING
IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by section five of the Judicature Amendment Act, 1913, it is enacted that the Court of Appeal shall consist of two divisions, to be called respectively the First Division and the Second Division of the Court of Appeal; and that each division shall consist of five Judges of the Supreme Court, to be appointed to that division by the Governor-General in Council:

And whereas the power conferred by the said Act upon the Governor-General in Council of appointing Judges as members of either division, or of revoking any such appointment, shall be exercisable on the recommendation of not less than three Judges of the Supreme Court (of whom the Chief Justice shall be one), and not otherwise:

And whereas the Honourable Chief Justice, the Honourable Mr. Justice Reed, and the Honourable Mr. Justice MacGregor have recommended that the two divisions of the Court of Appeal for the year one thousand nine hundred and twenty-eight shall be constituted as shown hereafter:

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, in exercise of the powers conferred by the said Act, and acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Dominion doth hereby appoint

The Honourable Sir Charles Perrin Skerrett, K.C.M.G.,
Chief Justice;
The Honourable Sir William Alexander Sim, Kt., Judge;
The Honourable John Ranken Reed, C.B.E., Judge;
The Honourable Alexander Samuel Adams, Judge; and
The Honourable William Cunningham MacGregor, Judge; to be members of the First Division of the Court of Appeal; and

The Honourable Sir Charles Perrin Skerrett, K.C.M.G.,
Chief Justice;
The Honourable Sir William Alexander Sim, Kt., Judge;
The Honourable John Ranken Reed, C.B.E., Judge;
The Honourable Henry Hubert Ostler, Judge; and
The Honourable Archibald William Blair, Judge;

to be members of the Second Division of the Court of Appeal for the year one thousand nine hundred and twenty-eight.

C. A. JEFFERY,
Acting Clerk of the Executive Council.
