Making Regulations under the Census and Statistics Act, 1926.

CHARLES FERGUSSON, Governor-General.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government Buildings at Wellington, this 4th day of April, 1928.

Present:

THE RIGHT HONOURABLE J. G. COATES, P.C., PRESIDING IN COUNCIL.

IN pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities vested in him by the Census and Statistics Act, 1926, His Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Dominion, doth hereby make the following regulations.

REGULATIONS.

1. THESE regulations may be cited as the Banking Statistics Regulations, 1928.

2. In these regulations, where not inconsistent with the context,—

"Bank" means any bank carrying on business in New Zealand within the meaning of the Banking Act, 1908:

"General Manager" means the principal officer of a bank in charge of the business of the bank in New Zealand, and includes any person acting in the name or on behalf of such principal officer:

"Week" means the weekly period computed up to the close of the bank's business on Monday in each week.

3. The form in which the particulars of statistics relating to banking shall, pursuant to the Census and Statistics Act, 1926, from time to time be collected shall be the form set out in the Schedule hereto.

4. The general manager of every bank shall, in respect of every week commencing with the week ending on the 9th day of April, 1928, furnish the particulars indicated in the said form to the Statistician not later than twelve days after the end of the week to which such particulars relate.

5. The general manager shall certify the particulars so furnished as being complete and correct by signing the certificate contained in the said form.

6. The particulars contained in the said form shall be supplied in accordance with any instructions issued by the Statistician contained in or accompanying or having reference to the said form.
