ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House at Wellington, this 6th day of August, 1928.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by section nineteen of the Post and Telegraph Amendment Act, 1927 (hereinafter termed "the said Act"), it is provided that the Governor-General may, by Order in Council, make such regulations as he thinks proper in protection of the rights of the Post and Telegraph Department in any official publication or in protection of the interests of any person in any advertisement appearing in or on any such publication; and, in particular, may by such regulations prohibit, save with the authority of the Minister of Telegraphs, the publication of any list of subscribers to the telephone with the appropriate telephone numbers, or may prohibit the supply or use of any cover or other device that would obscure any advertisement appearing in or on any such publication, and may prescribe the maximum penalty to be imposed for a breach of any such regulation:

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the power and authority conferred upon him by the said Act, and in exercise of the general authority conferred on him by section thirteen of the Post and Telegraph Amendment Act, 1922, and acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Dominion, doth hereby make the regulation set forth in the Schedule hereto.

SCHEDULE.

64A. (1) Save with the authority of the Minister no person shall—

- (a) Publish any list of subscribers to the telephone with the appropriate telephone numbers; or
- (b) Supply or use any cover or other device which has the effect of obscuring any advertisement appearing in or on any official telephone directory or other official publication of the Department.

(2) Any person who commits a breach of this regulation shall be liable to a fine not exceeding £50.
