

Regulations under the Naval Defence Act, 1913, amended.

CHARLES FERGUSSON, Governor-General.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government Buildings at Wellington, this 16th day of October, 1928.

Present :

THE RIGHT HONOURABLE J. G. COATES, P.C., PRESIDING IN COUNCIL.

IN pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities conferred on him by section twenty-five of the Naval Defence Act, 1913, and of all other powers and authorities enabling him in that behalf, His Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Dominion, doth hereby amend and supplement the regulations referred to in the Schedule hereto as shown therein.

SCHEDULE.

REGULATIONS FOR THE NEW ZEALAND ROYAL NAVAL RESERVE (MEN), 1922.

Regulation Number 37—Qualifications for Advancement.

Cancel paragraph headed "Signal and Telegraphist Ratings, Advancement of" and substitute :—

Signal and Telegraphist Ratings, Advancement of.—The Signal and Telegraphist Branches will be governed by the same regulations as for seamen ratings, except that men will be required to pass examinations in signals or wireless for the various grades as laid down, instead of passing in seamanship.

Ratings will not be required to pass an educational test provided they are in possession of sixth standard Proficiency Certificate or its equivalent.

Examination for Signal and W/T Ratings.

To qualify for higher rating, signal ratings will be examined in the following :—

	Total Marks.	Percentage to Pass.
Semaphore	100	96
Flag Waving	100	92
Flashing	100	94
Buzzer	100	90
Written Paper	200	80
Oral Examination	100	80

The standard rate of exercises will be—

	Ord. Sig. for Sig. Words per Minute.	Sig. for Ldg. Sig. and Yeo. Words per Minute.
Semaphore	15	20
Flag Waving	8	12
Flashing	7	9
Buzzer	10	15

Written paper will consist of questions on—

- Auxiliary vessels' signal-books.
- International code.
- Boats' signal-book.
- V/S Instructions.
- Instructions as to flying ensigns and jacks.
- Distinguishing signals.
- Procedure for signalling by sound, semaphore, flag-waving, flashing, and telephone.
- Distinctive marks worn by officers of Navy, Army, and Air Force.

To qualify for higher telegraphist rating, examination will be conducted as follows :—

	Total Marks.	Percentage to Pass.
Standard Buzzer—
Receiving	100	94
Transmitting	100	94
Paper (theory)*	200	65
Paper (procedure and organization)	100	65
Oral examination (W/T)	100	75
Practical procedure	100	70

* The paper on theory will not be given for ordinary telegraphist to telegraphist.

Buzzer for ordinary telegraphist to telegraphist will be at 20 words per minute, and 25 words per minute for other ratings.

Theory paper will include questions on the following :—

- Outline knowledge of the propagation of wave motion; inductance and capacity and practical application of the same; resonance; alternators and rotary converters; oscillatory circuits; frequency; transformers; receiving and transmitting circuits; valves—transmitting and receiving.

Paper on Organization and Procedure :—

Outline of organization ashore and afloat in New Zealand and method of handling traffic (naval and commercial). Procedure examination will consist of examples of British and allied W/T procedure.

It will probably be found most convenient for signal and W/T ratings to apply for examination during a period of training on board one of H.M. Ships, and the examining officers will be detailed by the captain of the ship in which the training is carried out. In other cases, when not serving on board one of H.M. Ships, applications must be made to the senior naval officer present, who will arrange for the examination to be carried out.
